2 Are Held In Thefts At Local Diner

A 21-year-old former East Liverpool man arrested Wednesday afternoon at Waterford Park Race Track has given a statement admitting two armed robberies at a Klondyke diner within an 11-day space in October and a 38-year-old Wellsville man is in custody as his accomplice.

William Lawrence Nesbitt, formerly of East Liverpool and Lisbon, is in Hancock County Jail at New Cumberland awaiting extradition proceedings tentatively scheduled for Monday morning in Circuit Court at New Cumberland after he was taken into custody at the race track on affidavits accusing him of the holdups Oct. 9 and Oct. 20 at the Little Diner at 1901 Harvey Ave.

GEORGE DEEM JR., 38, of 800 Broadway, Wellsville, was arrested about 10 hours later at his home by Patrolman Charles Amato of Wellsville, acting on an East Liverpool warrant accusing Deem of "aiding and abetting" in the Oct. 20 stickup by furnishing a gun and driving the getaway car.

Capt. Kenneth H. Mooney and Patrolman William A. Devon signed affidavits accusing Nesbitt of the two robberies at the Little Diner. Mrs. Nellie Taylor, the proprietor, was robbed of about $80 on the first occasion and approximately $35 in the second stickup. Police said Nesbitt, a native of Lisbon, once lived in East Liverpool at the YMCA and later on W. 7th St.

Bond for both defendants had been set at $10,000.

Devon and Mooney took custody of Nesbitt at the track, where he had been living and working as a stable hand. Nesbitt was arrested with the aid of track security officers. Devon and Mooney, acting on a tip that Nesbitt was employed at the track, showed his photograph to the security force. Nesbitt then was arrested in the stable area.

Nesbitt gave police a statement in which he said Deem furnished the gun and also drove the car in at least one of the cases. Nesbitt related that Deem dropped him off in front of the diner, drove around in the area and then picked him up later.

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. cavalrymen and helicopter gunships beat off a Red ambush of an American truck convoy today in the central highlands in one of three sharp actions reported to have cost the Communists 150 dead.

Enemy troops struck the truck column about 2½ miles east of Pleiku and 60 miles south to Dak To.

Associated Press correspondent John Lengel reported from Pleiku that the Communists killed four soldiers of the U.S. 1st Air Cavalry Division.

U.S. infantrymen reported killing 118 Communist soldiers in two battles—with bazooka-firing Viet Cong who attacked near Saigon and with entrenched North Vietnamese troops far to the north in the Que Son Valley.

In the air war, the U.S. Command claimed another probable MIG kill northwest of Hanoi and announced the loss of four more American planes.

A company from the 196th Light Infantry Brigade and an armored unit from the 1st Air Cavalry Division made contact with the North Vietnamese in the Que Son Valley 25 miles south of Da Nang on a search-and-destroy mission. The enemy opened up with heavy machine-gun fire from a complex of bunkers and holes in the bamboo-thicketed rice valley.

In a fierce 11-hour battle that raged until dark Thursday, the U.S. infantrymen claimed killing 61 enemy soldiers. They reported seven Americans killed

U.S. Envoy Arrives In Athens After Talks In Ankara

ATHENS (AP) — U.S. presidential envoy Cyrus R. Vance sought in Athens today to head off a Greek-Turkish war over Cyprus while the two North Atlantic Alliance members continued military preparations. Both nations' armed forces were alerted.

The tense situation caused the U.S. Embassy in Nicosia to order the evacuation to Beirut of 400 American wives and children from Cyprus. The State Department advised American travelers to stay away from Cyprus, Greece or Turkey, and the Canadian government issued the same warning to its citizens.

Vance arrived in the Greek capital after talks with Turkish leaders in Ankara Thursday that roused resentment in the Turkish press and a rock-throwing anti-American demonstration by 2,000 students eager for war. He was met with reserve by Turkish officials and made no comment on the negotiations.

Another Turkish threat in 1964 to go to the aid of the Turkish minority in Cyprus was thwarted when President Johnson issued a sharp, private warning to the Ankara government.

Vance could expect a warmer reception in Athens, where the military regime is in a less advantageous position. For the Greeks, war in Cyprus would mean fighting 500 miles from their mainland but only minutes from Turkish jet airfields 40 miles away. Turkey also is stronger militarily than Greece, and the Greek dictatorship can count on little or no aid from abroad.

Johnson's special envoy said he probably would go back to Ankara after his talks in Athens and later possibly to Cyprus. Coincidental with Vance's trip, Jose Rolz-Bennett, a special representative of U.N. Secretary-General U Thant, arrived in Turkey bearing a message "calling for restraint."

Pentagon Studies Plan

Bigger War Role Urged Of Saigon

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pentagon authorities are studying U.S. military proposals to re-equip the South Vietnamese army so it can take on a larger share of the war burden.

Modernization of the Vietnamese army, development of better leadership, and the instilling of self-confidence are basic to Gen. William C. Westmoreland's hopes for beginning at least a token withdrawal of U.S. toops by later 1969.

The United States has been trying to fashion the South Vietnamese army into an effective fighting force for six years or more.

But Westmoreland, U.S. commander in Vietnam, believes this objective is within grasp and is basing his program on that faith—judging by his statements in Washington this week.

The plans envision a staged modernization program to provide the South Vietnamese regular army with about 225,000 M16 rifles and with M60 machine guns by December 1968.

In 1969, the South Vietnamese would be given a considerable number of helicopters and new ground vehicles such as personnel carriers. More Vietnamese airmen would be trained as helicopter pilots.

The United States now provides most of the airpower and artillery for the South Vietnamese army. There is no indication of any major change in this—possibly because U.S. military leaders in Vietnam have used control of these important resources to apply leverage on the South Vietnamese when persuasion was needed.

The Vietnamese army now has a mixture of M14 rifles and carbines, except for a relatively small number of the M16s given to the South Vietnamese elite airborne and marine units.

The M16 is lighter than the M14 and has a higher rate of fire than either the M14 or the carbine.

The South Vietnamese regular forces number some 334,000 men and there are indications

LBJ Settling Back Into His Work Routine

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson is settling back into the work routine of a ranch stay after a family-style Thanksgiving.

The Texas White House gave out no information on any official visitors or agenda for the chief executive today. However, it is Johnson's pattern here to mix paperwork, phone calls to Washington officials and recreation.

One of his big concerns was the threat of a Turkish-Greek conflict over Cyprus.

There was the possibility, too, that before returning to Washington early next week Johnson might try to dramatize—perhaps with a ranch conference of high officials—his renewed drive for a 10 per cent income tax hike. Once given up for dead, the tax bill got a new lease on life because of last weekend's devaluation of the British pound.

Administration officials will present a revised tax plan to the House Ways and Means Committee next Wednesday.

All the Johnson clan gathered at the ranch, some 75 miles north of here, for a late-in-the day Thanksgiving dinner. Present were daughters Luci and Lynda; Luci's husband Patrick J. Nugent and son Patrick Lyndon, and Lynda's fiance, Marine Capt. Charles S. Robb.

Other relatives and friends also were on hand for a holiday menu of turkey, sweet potatoes, asparagus and multiple trimmings.

Another Soldier Buried In His Place

GI 'Killed' In Vietnam Coming Home To Mother

ELIZABETHTON, Tenn. (AP) — Apparently unaware the Army has buried a Kentucky soldier in his place, a young soldier returns from Vietnam today to his mother's mountainside home, that is still bedecked with floral wreaths from his funeral last Tuesday.

Pfc. John W. Guinn, 23, called his mother from Vietnam Thursday to tell her he was headed home. The mother, Blanche Guinn, said she didn't tell him of the mistake.

"I'm coming home," she quoted her son as saying. "I don't know what the deal is, but they're sure getting me out of here fast. I'll be home in 24 hours."

The Army said in a statement that two members of Guinn's unit mistakenly identified the body of Pfc. Quinn W. Tichenor, 23, of Louisville, Ky., as that of the Tennessee soldier.

The identity was not verified, through a standard check of fingerprints by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, until Tichenor's body had been buried by Guinn's mother in services near here.

Nasser's Talk 'Torpedoes' Peace Hopes

Warns Egypt Will Fight, If Needed, To Back Its Land

JERUSALEM (AP) — A tough speech by President Gamal Abdel Nasser warning that Egypt will fight if necessary to get its territories back, today strengthened Israel's determination that a settlement can be reached only through direct negotiations with the Arabs.

One Israeli diplomat said Nasser's speech Thursday "torpedoed" hopes raised by Egypt's acceptance of the U.N. Security Council resolution on the Middle East and "puts us back at square one."

"That's why we want direct talks with the Arabs—not a U.N. arranged settlement," the source said.

Nasser ruled out such negotiations or an armistice with Israel in an address to his National Assembly and said the Israelis must evacuate all areas of Egypt, Jordan and Syria seized in the June war.

"What has been taken by force cannot be recovered without force," he warned.

Optimists at U.N. headquarters in New York suggested that Nasser might be talking tough to keep his people quiet, a standard tactic of his. But Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban said in New York: "We

Price Unchanged In U.S.

Gold Rush On London's Market Enters Third Day

LONDON (AP) — The gold rush on the London bullion market continued today for the third straight day with orders pouring in and dealers reporting a "gigantic turnover."

The price remained unchanged as the United States and its partners in the international gold pool continued to provide the metal to meet the demand. But the run on gold which developed after Britain devalued the pound raised threats to the dollar.

Dealers said the turnover in the first hours of selling today indicated that a record would be set.

Gold stocks were also strong on the London Stock Exchange, but industrial shares continued the big decline that set in with wide profit-taking Thursday. Within half an hour of the opening the Financial Times index of 130 industrials had plunged below the 400 level for the first time in weeks.

Record gold sales were reported Thursday in the London, Paris and Zurich markets as buyers, apparently expecting still more countries to devalue their currencies, traded paper money for gold. The French government let the word out it would resume cashing dollars for gold, which it stopped in October 1966 because it was running short of dollars.

The U.S. government is committed to buying and selling gold at $35 an ounce on the foreign market. If a scarcity in its gold supply forces up the metal's price, this means the value of the dollar has declined.

One important bullion dealer commented: "Even the American gold hoard cannot hold out indefinitely against this sort of demand." But British experts said the United States has several ways to defend the dollar.

Police Head Calls Riots 'Dry Grass' Conditions

WASHINGTON (AP) — Police Commissioner Howard R. Leary of New York City has told President Johnson's Advisory Commission on Civil Disorders the requisites of a riot include what he called "dry grass" conditions sparked into flame, fed by rumors and fanned by agitators.

Leary's testimony before the commission Sept. 20 was released Thursday. The commission was set up to investigate causes of last summer's riots and to make recommendations for dealing with the problem.

Leary described dry grass conditions as "a congested urban area, inhabited largely by persons who feel left out of the prosperity that marks most of the contemporary American society."

"It is marked by a rising standard of living," Leary said, "but an even more steeply rising scale of demands on society. There is generally a high level of frustration, an increasing amount of anger and almost always a feeling that comes from

Surprise Coffee Break

SEATTLE (AP)—A window washer got a surprise coffee break this week while suspended outside an 11th story room used by members of City Council.

At the suggestion of Councilman Floyd Miller, the man was handed a cup of coffee and a piece of cake.

The weatherman will be doing East Liverpool and the area a big favor if the promised "occasional rain" holds off until after tonight's Christmas parade here.

Sinatra May Drop Mia As Co-Star For Movie

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Film colony insiders predict that Mia Farrow will be replaced as co-star of "The Detective," the film she was scheduled to make with husband Frank Sinatra before they announced their trial separation.

Although Sinatra, 51, and Miss Farrow, 22, had no comment besides the bare announcement Wednesday that "a trial separation has been mutually agreed upon," associates blamed film production problems for the rift.

THE YOUNG blonde actress was scheduled to join her husband in New York where they would co-star in "The Detective," but Miss Farrow had been starring in "Rosemary's Baby" in Hollywood, and that film had lagged behind schedule.

Paramount Pictures refused to release Miss Farrow from "Rosemary's Baby" for her appearance in the New York-based picture. Sinatra's temper reportedly flared at the delay and, after heated arguments with the studio, the Sinatra cast and crew returned to Hollywood to await completion of Miss Farrow's film.

But it was reported that Sinatra requested a replacement for Miss Farrow early this week. All filming on "The Detective," except for Miss Farrow's scenes, was completed Wednesday.

Sinatra's marriage — his third — to the young daughter of actress Maureen O'Sullivan and the late director John Farrow caused a sensation on July 19, 1966, because of the 29-year difference in the ages of the bride and groom.

—:—

THE MARRIAGE was marked by long separations as Miss Farrow made films on foreign locations and Sinatra continued his activities in the show world.

In Hollywood, Miss Farrow often attended social events on the arm of a male friend of the family while Sinatra avoided the gala parties.

But when the pair was seen together, friends reported the marriage seemed to be going smoothly.

Earlier this week, the Sinatras hosted a small farewell party for Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton who were visiting here briefly.

But on Thanksgiving Day the Sinatras were apart. She is believed to have spent the day at their Beverly Hills home and he at his Palm Springs home.

5 Given Fines For Speeding

Five motorists cited by East Liverpool police and the Ohio Highway Patrol on speeding charges were fined today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff, while two more forfeited appearance bonds.

The fines were paid by: Paula Creaturo of Columbus and David A. Bailey of Dixonville, $15 and costs each; Alfred J. Pierson of LaCroft and Raymond L. Huston of RD 2, $10 and costs each, and Clifford Payne of Shadyside Ave., $20 and costs.

William B. Douglas of 104 W. 5th St. and Harold R. Bucheit of 622 3rd St., Chester, each forfeited $17.50 on speeding charges. Both were cited on St. Clair Ave. by Patrolman David K. Mumaw.

Mark Lee Goodman of Summit Dr. was fined $25 and costs on a reckless driving charge. He was cited by the patrol Wednesday on Route 7. Otto T. Jenkins of 5th Ave., LaCroft, was ordered to pay the costs on a charge of driving an unsafe car. He was cited this morning at 1:09 on Market St. by Patrolman H. Clyde Dillon.

The court issued a bench warrant for Warren E. Pennell Jr. of Warren, who failed to appear on a speeding charge. He was cited by the patrol Tuesday on Route 7.

FAA Asked To Consider Closing Airport Runway

CINCINNATI (AP) — Gov. James A. Rhodes asked the Federal Aviation Administration today to consider closing the north-south runway at Greater Cincinnati Airport pending an investigation of safety factors.

"Expert investigation" is needed to determine the safety of the south corridor approach under marginal weather conditions, a statement from the governor's office said.

The crash of a Trans World Airlines plane into a hillside near the airport Monday night took 67 lives.

Rhodes said he made the request to the FAA after consulting with Norman Crabtree, state aviation director. Crabtree said a number of professional pilots who regularly use the airport have questioned the safety of the approach.

These pilots said that the hilly countryside in relationship to the north end of the runway creates what might be called an optical illusion, according to Crabtree.

Some pilots also reported they fight a downdraft off the hill at the end of the runway, Crabtree added.

Rhodes also called for Congress to expedite a full-scale investigation of the airport. If the airport is not safe, another one will have to be developed to serve Southern Ohio, Rhodes added.

Several other officials, including Kentucky's Gov. Edward Breathitt, had earlier called for intensive investigations and questioned the safety factors at the airport in Boone County, Ky.

General Electric specialists here said they would begin examining today the four engines that powered the jet passenger plane involved in the latest crash at the airport.

General Electric, which built the engines for the Trans-World Airlines 880 Convair at its suburban Evendale plant, will try to determine their operating capacity prior to the tragic accident.

The first bodies of persons killed in the crash about 1½ miles short of a runway at Greater Cincinnati Airport were released by authorities to relatives Thursday.

Investigation into the accident, which 15 persons survived, continued Thursday but officials divulged little information except for describing witnesses' comments on weather conditions.

Ed Slattery, spokesman for the National Transportation Safety Board investigating team said witnesses' indicated "there was an intense localized snow shower in the area about the time of the crash. But in general, the weather here was above minimum conditions."

Most information obtained so far probably won't be made public until it is released at a formal hearing late in January, officials said.

not have sufficient funds on deposit. Deem was fined and placed on probation after making arrangements to make restitution.

Another man was arrested, and subsequently released for lack of evidence, in connection with the first robbery at the diner.

Officers jailed an E. 2nd St. youth, but he was released later when the charges were dropped in Municipal Court.

In the Oct. 20 robbery at the diner, the gunman told Mrs. Taylor: "They got the wrong bandit."

Mrs. Taylor later told police she was certain the same young man staged both the stickups. That led to the release of the E. 2nd St. youth, who also had been charged with robbery of the Ohnezeit Grocery on Pennsylvania Ave., also on Oct. 9. The grocery store robbery charge also was dismissed for lack of evidence.

"THE ARREST in Hancock County was the result of painstaking, continuing police work" by Capt. Mooney and Officer Devon, recently assigned as an investigative officer, the chief said.

"It was the continuous investigation, thanks to Devon's new assignment, that helped solve this case," the chief continued. "It made it possible for the officers to work steadily in this case, running down clues and investigating tips. I believe that more cases will be solved in this fashion in the future."

The chief commended the two officers for their dogged work and also thanked the track's security force and Hancock authorities for their assistance.

Concern Over Convention

One week from today the 163 delegates to Pennsylvania's constitutional convention will convene at Harrisburg to consider revisions of the state's basic operating structure.

Failure of the legislature to provide for non-partisan nomination of delegates has already permitted a number of party workers and lobbyists to gain credentials to the convention with little actual qualification for helping map changes in constitutional law.

New York earlier this month underwent the disappointing and expensive experience of voter rejection of a proposed revision of its constitution which cost $10 million but was doomed from the beginning by political back - biting and partisan controversy.

Four major areas of the Keystone State's constitution are to be studied for recommended improvements — state finances and taxes; the judiciary, including the 19th Century system of aldermen and justices of the peace; local government, and legislative reapportionment.

There are, happily, a great number of delegates of ability and knowledge who, if they work together in a sincere, non - partisan effort to design a modern structure to fit Pennsylvania's needs in the late 20th Century, can offer voters next April 23 a truly workable constitution.

If they do not, Pennsylvanians will have paid out an enormous amount of money for the privilege of staying economically, legally, and administratively 200 years behind the space age.

The Shadow Of A President

The newest guessing game in Washington starts with this question: Will the real President Johnson please stand up"?

At last week's news conference, a new President was unveiled.

Eight minutes into the conference, the President stepped away from the podium, a soldier plugged in a portable microphone and the new image emerged.

The President walked, talked and gestured freely. He quoted some scripture, talked softly and also displayed anger. He laughed, joked and was dead serious when the occasion called for it.

The difference between the new image and the slow-talking, hard-to-anger, grandfatherly Texan who spoke from a rigid position on a formal podium was noticeable.

Congressmen and intimates say the new President is really the old President, the real Johnson. They say that is the way he is off camera.

If that is true, why has he been kept under wraps? What is the purpose of unveiling the real President Johnson at this time?

Is it because the image that has been projected for the last four years isn't getting the job done? Is there a need for a new image with an election coming up?

Naturally, no president deliberately will show his bad side to the public. That has been true of all White House residents. The burden of the presidency of the United States is heavy enough without trying to fill two personality roles — one off and one on-camera.

President Johnson brought to the presidency a reputation as a top-flight congressional infighter — highly persuasive but with little polish. His advisers apparently tried to make him be something other than himself.

It was a disservice to the President. It was a disservice to the people of this country. Now that they have seen the "real" (or is this the real?) Johnson his personal credibility gap is widened.

Voters like to believe they are voting for a man when they elect a president — not the shadow of what presidential advisers feel a president should be.

No One Can Trust Anyone

The United States believes in disarmament. American diplomats have worked hard to promote disarmament.

Yet, the United States is cast in a bad light when it has to veto a disarmament proposal by the Soviet Union that is absolutely impractical.

A Russian proposal in the United Nations pledges the signing countries to refrain from use or production of nuclear weapons and calls for internationally supervised destruction of existing stockpiles.

The Soviet Union naturally would like to see present stockpiles wiped out because the United States has the larger pile.

In the absence of inspection provisions, it wouldn't take long for the Soviet Union, through secret stockpiling, to become top nuclear dog.

Vasily V. Kuznetsov, Soviet deputy foreign minister, in submitting the proposal said there are no practical problems to stall adoption. "The good will of all states should be sufficient," he added.

There has been sufficient lack of "good will" on the part of the Soviet Union in the past to forestall action based on that premise.

When a nation's life is at stake, there is no room for mistakes.

The world community also would be foolish to ignore the threat of Red China, which has the inclination of a bully and is working on the nuclear means to carry out that inclination.

The United States would like very much to participate in a disarmament program that would insure peace. Plans have been offered at Geneva and at United Nations to this end. They were reasonable and workable. They were rejected.

The United States will continue to work for disarmament but will firmly resist schemes that would risk its own security.

Purely Personal Observations

One thing British devaluation makes clear that never was unclear: Money has no patriotism, no loyalty, nothing but the hope of making more money. It will go wherever opportunity beckons, regardless of all other elements of consideration, such as war, national security and political upsets.

When I was a student, I thought the grading systems I encountered were silly. The only system that makes any sense is yes, no and that was a distinguished performance — three decisions, no hairline distinctions between B-plus, A-minus and so on and so on.

Once more it is the season when baseball moguls shuffle around problem players in an effort to persuade grillies in the center-field bleachers next June that great benefits will come out of the rearrangement. Then it turns out next June that the problem players haven't changed.

A young man of my acquaintance wants to know why a hill in a place like Korea or Vietnam is worth dozens of American lives and I had to refer him to a military mind for an answer. I don't know why a little old hill would be worth anyone's life, but I am sure militarists can explain it.

My personal credibility gap grows wider whenever legislators yelp about administrators spending money. An administrator cannot spend a dime he hasn't been authorized to spend by legislators, who usually put on pressure for more spending than administrators have requested.

When I think of winter. I remember the oranges growing on trees in Rome last December —in Rome, mind you, which lies north of New York City. Generalizations about climate are silly. Palm trees grow in Ireland and England, in the latitude of Labrador.

Industrial Peace Possible

WASHINGTON — There's still a fighting chance that there will be industrial peace in our lifetimes—that in 20 years or so this will be a strikeless nation, a land in which no industry will be paralyzed by massive walkouts, and that it will all come about peacefully without the prodding of an angry Congress or White House.

Victor Riesel

Mark well the place and date at which history will record that all this began: Oct. 11, in the Hotel Shoreham here. Some 33 men of steel labor met and debated. What they did there has been variously reported. But the actual story was not told.

At that meeting of the United Steelworkers' International Executive Board they discussed a joint labor-management proposal to surrender the right to strike and to lock out employes. There was no vote, no agreement, no rejection. Eight regional directors strongly championed the elusive dream of industrial peace. Eight were against. They were led by the powerful Chicago regional chief Joe Germano.

The other 14 directors listened mostly to the proposals of the three national officers, led by the white-haired, 59-year-old president, I. W. Abel, now being more and more frequently discussed as the successor to AFL-CIO president George Meany.

These are battle-hardened men, sophisticates who know that they really were not talking about giving up the absolute right to strike. They know the record. At least 13 times in the last 20 go-rounds with the industry, the government, through the White House, had zeroed in on them and forced them to settle without a strike. Once, Harry Truman even moved to seize the steel mills.

These men of steel labor knew that the Congress now is getting into ad hoc labor relations on an almost regular basis.

THEY REALIZED, as they argued behind those closed hotel doors, that it was virtually too late to prevent one more confrontation, one more flexing of muscles, one more crisis bargaining, one more emergency, one more White House assault upon them when they move on May 30, 1968, for another showdown with the 11 major steel corporations. And that the White House faced next summer by a Vietnam climax and a presidential election, would force a settlement at the last minute either just before or right after a few days of coast-to-coast striking. The contract expires on August 1.

So the union chiefs began talking though many of them believed it was too late to stave off hysteria in 1968. But they have their eyes on 1971. They know it will be a long, long trail and trial.

Before the right to strike can be surrendered in steel there must be four giant steps taken:

The International Executive Board, which will meet again shortly, must approve the proposal which calls for 60 days of bargaining and then submission of the issues for final binding arbitration by a three-man board, headed by someone such as U.S. Ambassador Arthur Goldberg.

THEN THE PROPOSAL must go to the 167-man International Wage Policy Committee. Thus the debate will be escalated.

Approval here by what is not exactly known as a quiescent and mute band of men, would move the peace stratagem to the Basic Steel Industry Conference made up of representatives of at least 500 of the United Steelworkers' (USW) 3,500 locals. This would be a mass meeting, crackling amid live microphones. Of course this was just created last year. Its size and infrastructure are still undefined. It's big since it speaks for about half the national union's membership. But it would set up a Continuations Committee so it could function. However, this coordinating subcommittee would have to go back to the mass meeting for approval of its decisions.

Then, and only if the approval sprang from amid the uproar, would the final step be implemented. This would be a poll of the 450,000 USW members in basic steel plants.

If the dream doesn't turn into a nightmare, the "right" to strike will be hammered into the right to reason.

The 1968 bargaining is too far down the road to a crisis even if the early obstacles are hurdled. But out of the raging fire of next summer's heat may come a rank-and-file realization that future strikes could cripple the union, the industry and hit the nation in its Achilles heel so that we all begin to limp.

The hope then is that by 1971 a steel strike will begin to become a historical curiosity. What then of the rest of America's mass industry? In the past, on this front, it has been said that as steel goes so goes the nation. Peace could be catching. It could take hold in "auto" and "rubber" and "copper" and other mass industries.

It is a dream. But for men of good will, it's worth dreaming.

Automation To The Rescue

By Ray Cromley

A number of knowledgeable goverment officials with whom this reporter has been in contact, see little chance of preventing creeping inflation from continuing in 1968.

These men make studies for government planning purposes.

They now think it won't be possible for President Johnson's hold-the-line men to prevent industrial wages from rising by at least 5 per cent in 1968.

This increase is well above the 3.2 per cent annual wage rise the President's Council of Economic Advisers a few years ago called the maximum-average-gain allowable if we were not to have inflation.

Union men say rising prices in 1966 forced them to insist on heavy wage boosts in 1967. Rising 1967 prices in turn will lead to heavier wage demands in 1968.

Largely as a result of the predicted 1968 wage gains and the realized gains in 1967, the government experts expect living costs to rise significantly across the board next year.

Because of narrowing profit margins, the President has been equally unsuccessful of late in getting major industries to hold the price line.

Over-all prices are expected to gain 3 to 4 per cent in 1968.

Between 1959 and 1964, prices increased an average 1.2 per cent a year. In 1965, the gain was 1.7 per cent; in 1966, 2.9 per cent. September 1967 prices were 2.6 per cent above September 1966.

Today, average mortgage interest rates are pushing up toward 7 per cent.

Service costs are moving up firmly and are expected to lead the 1968 price rise. Medical care and household services will also be in the forefront of the gains.

Clothing will cost more, both because of rising labor costs and widening retail margins.

Furniture, tires, new and used cars, appliances, radios and television sets are believed certain to increase further in price.

Retail food prices, which moved up about 1 per cent this year, are expected to rise 2 to 3 per cent in 1968.

Food eaten out — in restaurants, hotels, cafeterias and elsewhere — is expected to cost 5 per cent more. That's on top of a 5 per cent gain in 1967.

These rising prices, in turn, presumably will cause unions to ask for higher wage increases in late 1968 and 1969 to enable workers to hold their own. That would dictate another round of price increases—and then another increase in wages.

Businessmen this reporter has talked to believe the only way out of the spiral is another strong round of automation.

The world faces a crisis in finance. It involves every country. Imports and exports are influenced by drastic changes in prices.

The lessons of experience are being taught the hard way. Governments cannot indefinitely keep on spending more money than they collect in taxes. Nor can a national economy in one country be operated without having impact outside its borders.

The British have been running a "welfare" state under their socialist-labor government for several years. Prices have been rising, as wages soared, due to threats of strikes and work stoppages for prolonged periods. Wage-and-price controls — belatedly adopted — were not enough to stop inflation.

For the present, devaluation of the pound sterling by Great Britain will affect primarily the people in that country. Domestic prices will rise due to higher cost of some imports, though Britain's goods will be offered for export around the world at fewer dollars.

It's just as if the United States had suddenly reduced tariffs. Many British products will be available at lower cost and competition in certain lines of goods will be felt in this country.

IN 1931, after Britain went off the gold standard, the pound sterling dropped from $4.86 in value, fluctuated widely for nine years, and was finally stabilized in 1940 at $4.03 — a decrease in value of 17 per cent.

In September 1949, in another devaluation, the price was set at $2.80 — a drop of 30 per cent.

The latest change is 14.3 per cent and brings the pound to $2.40. The big question is whether the British will further devalue due to pressure upon their economic system because of counter-action taken by other countries around the world to support their own currencies.

The Federal Reserve Bank has increased the discount rate at which banks borrow from the Federal Reserve System. This was done in order to prevent more dollars from flowing out of this country to satisfy demands of foreign borrowers, thus increasing the imbalance in payments which the United States has been trying so long to correct.

An increase in the Federal Reserve rate for bank interest will move up other rates, too. The cost of borrowing will rise for people who want to buy homes and also for businessmen in obtaining loans.

What is happening today resembles to some extent the occurrences in the 1920s and 1930s. The first of these decades produced an inflationary era, as interest rates were kept low and money was available for almost everything, including speculation.

WHEN THE stock market crashed in October 1929, European banks were already feeling the pinch of America's inflation.

It was not until 1931, however, that the real crisis came, as a bank in Austria, known as the Credit-Anstalt, collapsed. It had been in trouble in 1929 and was merged with a bigger bank. But this proved to be a temporary solution.

A chain reaction set in, and the consequence was that Germany, England and most other European countries got into financial difficulties and had to go off the gold standard.

Congress will attempt to appraise the possible effects of Britain's devaluation. Some Democratic leaders are saying a tax increase would relieve the American situation.

Their theory is that the tax would tend to reduce inflation and this would make unnecessary any further increases in interest rates and perhaps might even tend to bring them down.

It may turn out that for a while the United States will have to maintain interest rates at a high level anyhow to prevent European drains on American funds.

A sound economy isn't achieved overnight. Though the current changes are being characterized as "temporary," either on the international side or in connection with domestic policy, they may involve a period of readjustment which will last longer than several months. It may take a few years.

Concern Over Convention

One week from today the 163 delegates to Pennsylvania's constitutional convention will convene at Harrisburg to consider revisions of the state's basic operating structure.

Failure of the legislature to provide for non-partisan nomination of delegates has already permitted a number of party workers and lobbyists to gain credentials to the convention with little actual qualification for helping map changes in constitutional law.

New York earlier this month underwent the disappointing and expensive experience of voter rejection of a proposed revision of its constitution which cost $10 million but was doomed from the beginning by political back - biting and partisan controversy.

Four major areas of the Keystone State's constitution are to be studied for recommended improvements — state finances and taxes; the judiciary, including the 19th Century system of aldermen and justices of the peace; local government, and legislative reapportionment.

There are, happily, a great number of delegates of ability and knowledge who, if they work together in a sincere, non - partisan effort to design a modern structure to fit Pennsylvania's needs in the late 20th Century, can offer voters next April 23 a truly workable constitution.

If they do not, Pennsylvanians will have paid out an enormous amount of money for the privilege of staying economically, legally, and administratively 200 years behind the space age.

The Shadow Of A President

The newest guessing game in Washington starts with this question: Will the real President Johnson please stand up"?

At last week's news conference, a new President was unveiled.

Eight minutes into the conference, the President stepped away from the podium, a soldier plugged in a portable microphone and the new image emerged.

The President walked, talked and gestured freely. He quoted some scripture, talked softly and also displayed anger. He laughed, joked and was dead serious when the occasion called for it.

The difference between the new image and the slow-talking, hard-to-anger, grandfatherly Texan who spoke from a rigid position on a formal podium was noticeable.

Congressmen and intimates say the new President is really the old President, the real Johnson. They say that is the way he is off camera.

If that is true, why has he been kept under wraps? What is the purpose of unveiling the real President Johnson at this time?

Is it because the image that has been projected for the last four years isn't getting the job done? Is there a need for a new image with an election coming up?

Naturally, no president deliberately will show his bad side to the public. That has been true of all White House residents. The burden of the presidency of the United States is heavy enough without trying to fill two personality roles — one off and one on-camera.

President Johnson brought to the presidency a reputation as a top-flight congressional infighter — highly persuasive but with little polish. His advisers apparently tried to make him be something other than himself.

It was a disservice to the President. It was a disservice to the people of this country. Now that they have seen the "real" (or is this the real?) Johnson his personal credibility gap is widened.

Voters like to believe they are voting for a man when they elect a president — not the shadow of what presidential advisers feel a president should be.

No One Can Trust Anyone

The United States believes in disarmament. American diplomats have worked hard to promote disarmament.

Yet, the United States is cast in a bad light when it has to veto a disarmament proposal by the Soviet Union that is absolutely impractical.

A Russian proposal in the United Nations pledges the signing countries to refrain from use or production of nuclear weapons and calls for internationally supervised destruction of existing stockpiles.

The Soviet Union naturally would like to see present stockpiles wiped out because the United States has the larger pile.

In the absence of inspection provisions, it wouldn't take long for the Soviet Union, through secret stockpiling, to become top nuclear dog.

Vasily V. Kuznetsov, Soviet deputy foreign minister, in submitting the proposal said there are no practical problems to stall adoption. "The good will of all states should be sufficient," he added.

There has been sufficient lack of "good will" on the part of the Soviet Union in the past to forestall action based on that premise.

When a nation's life is at stake, there is no room for mistakes.

The world community also would be foolish to ignore the threat of Red China, which has the inclination of a bully and is working on the nuclear means to carry out that inclination.

The United States would like very much to participate in a disarmament program that would insure peace. Plans have been offered at Geneva and at United Nations to this end. They were reasonable and workable. They were rejected.

The United States will continue to work for disarmament but will firmly resist schemes that would risk its own security.

How To Restore The Bloom

One of Eve's daughters writes: "I am only 41 and my sagging throatline makes me look older. Can bracing tone be restored?

Ida Jean Kain

I cream my face and throat twice daily. The beauty operator says to stroke downward, but directions on the jars of cream emphasize the upward motion. Which is right? Please write about toning face and throat muscles."

Beauty creams help to keep the skin soft and pliable, thus discouraging the formation of unwanted lines. Use an upward motion so as to counteract the down - pull of gravity. Start at the base of the throat and stroke upwards firmly toward the jawline.

Wrinkles are frowned on, literally. The best wrinkle-chaser is to "discard the mental wrinkles of anxious concern." American women have been accused of using their faces too hard. At ease. The most noticeable thing we wear is our expression. A smile "rests" the face, for it is conducive to relaxing.

IT IS FUTILE to fight birthdays, for then you do not truly enjoy your present age. On the other hand, laziness gets you nowhere either. Why allow the muscles to fall down on the job? Toning measures help to prevent sagging. Toned muscles support the skin more fully.

Prope head posture affords continual exercise. From the standpoint of appearance, the muscle most important to keeping the throatline looking youthful is the platysma, which contracts the skin on the surface of the neck. This thin sheet of muscle fibers covers the collarbones and extends obliquely upwards, rounding the jawline. The platysma has little to do with holding your head erect, but much to do with the appearance of the throastline. When this muscle is allowed to become lax and flabby, as it will with droopy head posture, then folds of soft flesh and under - chin creases result. Hold your head erect with the chin level, tipped neither up nor down.

THE FOLLOWING easy toner strengthens muscles of the neck and jawline: Lying flat on back on bed, slip a soft pillow under shoulders — with back of head resting on bed. Raise head to a level line — no higher — and h-o-l-d the muscle contraction to a slow count of six. Lower head and repeat three times, always holding. Repeat routine night and morning.

To tone cheek muscles, try this: Bunch up cheeks as you do in an exaggerated grin. With palms of hands rub upwards on the cheek muscles. As you do this, exercise the jaw muscles —try to open and close your mouth at the same time, thus pitting one set of muscles against the other. The massage action plus the tug - of - muscle will leave you all a-glow.

Be sure to hold your head beautifully erect as you take the above exercise — and at all other times, too. Proper head posture keeps all the muscles of the neck toned.

and 42 wounded and two armored personnel carriers destroyed.

A company of U.S. reinforcements was flown in Thursday and two more companies went in today, but no further contact was reported.

In the other battle, 52 miles northwest of Saigon, outnumbered American troops reported killing 57 of about 300 Viet Cong who tried unsuccessfully before dawn today to break through the barbed-wire perimeter of a 1st Infantry Division company with mortars and small rockets fired from bazookas. They got to the wire but never penetrated it.

Four American infantrymen were killed and 21 wounded, most of them at night observation posts outside the company's perimeter.

The Viet Cong retreated after two hours under a pounding by artillery and helicopter gunships. Most of the wounded Americans returned to duty after first aid, a U.S. spokesman said.

The Dak To front in the central highlands was quiet after three weeks of epic fighting—the costliest battle of the war for both sides—culminated in the Thanksgiving Day capture of Hill 875 by American paratroopers. Only one contact with North Vietnamese troops was reported since Thursday afternoon.

The U.S. Command increased the casualty figures for both sides at Dak To, reporting 280 Americans and 1,398 North Vietnamese killed and 974 Americans wounded there since fighting began Nov. 3. It said American forces killed 1,005 of the enemy, and South Vietnamese forces claimed the others.

Loss of four more planes over North Vietnam brought to 755 the total number of U.S. combat aircraft officially reported downed in the North.

The loss was revealed in the latest periodic summary of aircraft losses, and the U.S. Command gave no details. Presumably they went down between Nov. 14-21, the period of the report.

During one raid northwest of Hanoi Thursday, an Air Froce F4 Phantom fighter-bomber attacked two MIG21 interceptors preparing to run on another flight of Phantoms.

The American fliers, Lt. Col. Richard G. Collins, 38, of West Palm Beach, Fla., and his radar officer, 1st Lt. William T. Nicholson, 25, of Mercer Island, Wash., said one of their missiles hit one of the MIGs, setting off a large black explosion. But the MIG disappeared into the clouds, and so far they were credited with only a probable kill.

Collins had been credited with downing a MIG15 in the Korean War 15 years ago.

The northeast monsoons limited U. S. pilots to 81 missions against the North Thursday, with the key raid a radar bomb drop in the Cuc Bang storage area 3 miles west-northwest of Hanoi.

Elsewhere in the North, Marine pilots attacked army barracks 25 and 30 miles north of Hanoi and the Hon Gai military barracks and storage complex 30 miles northeast of Haiphong.

Marine pilots also claimed destroying 40 enemy bunkers and eight fortifications near the demilitarized zone, and Air Force pilots said they sank five cargo barges along the coast.

NOT REGULATION headgear exactly, but goathorns obviously strike the fancy of a stubble - bearded trooper of the 101st Airborne Division participating in an operation north of Chu Lai, South Vietnam.

The Vet Cong lobbed 20 to 30 mortar rounds into the positions of the U.S. 25th Infantry Division 3 miles northwest of Saigon today, wounding nine Americans.

Headquarters said an American patrol was close enough to hear the mortars being fired but was unable to move through the jungle in time to stop the attack. But when the guerrillas withdrew in their direction, the Americans opened up on them and reported killing eight.

The fight for Hill 875—costliest objective in the Dak To campaign — ended Thursday when U.S. paratroopers overcame final light resistance by one remaining squad of North Vietnamese troops. Estimates of the original enemy detachment on the hill ran from 200 to 500 men.

U.S. officers estimated that 6,000 to 8,000 North Vietnamese troops were in the Dak To area of the central highlands at the start of the fighting three weeks ago. The Communists are believed withdrawing into Cambodia—about four miles away — and Laos, and eight-engine B52 bombers raided suspected escape routes twice today.

The U.S. Command in Saigon also reported today that a Communist defector led American troops to a Viet Cong hospital complex and two major munitions caches 13 miles northwest of Tam Ky, and paratroopers of the 101st Airborne Division captured 20 Viet Cong soldiers who were patients.

U.S. 25th Division infantrymen reported uncovering a cache containing 65 Chinese carbines 22 miles northwest of Saigon.

In Saigon, the U.S. Command reduced the American estimate of enemy strength in South Vietnam and adjoining areas of Laos and Cambodia for the second time this week.

The estimate had been 297,000 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese, including political workers or cadres.

Earlier this week in Washington Gen. William C. Westmoreland, commander of U.S. forces in Vietnam, cut the estimate 43,000 to 254,000. Today the command said the estimate now is between 223,000 and 24,000. It does not include political workers, however.

"The decline is due mostly to killing them off," Brig. Gen. Winant Sidle, the command's information chief, told newsmen. "There are some Chieu Hoi—defectors—and a high rate of illness. You could say that all our efforts are bearing fruit."

years of broken promises, and ranges from mute disappointment to outspoken rage."

The spark usually is an incident in which the police are involved, such as an arrest or the policeman's use of a gun, he continued. This is inevitably followed by rumors which magnify the original incident out of proportion, he said.

Thus, Leary testified, with the condition, the incident and the rumor, "Step no. 4 begins when the agitators appear on the scene, ready to promote their own aims and ambitions and programs at the expense of the community they profess to serve."

Leary told the commission the agitator inevitably turns his attention to teen-agers, exciting them into committing acts of vandalism.

A that point, he said, a sufficient police force is required—first, to prevent further vandalism and then to head off looting.

"This is a most critical area, because it is at this point that the agitator's efforts to turn a disturbance into a riot will succeed or fail," Leary explained.

If large scale looting can be prevented, he continued, it will give the "decent, orderly and reasonable forces within the community" time to work and "good sense is given a chance to argue against destruction and disorder."

Leary's testimony and that of three others who appeared Sept. 20 concluded that adequate community relations programs are needed to salve riot conditions.

One major course of action when riots occur, said E. Wilson Purdy, public safety director of Dade County, (Miami) Fla., is the police-community relations approach "in which you attempt to enlist or involve the total community in the problem-solving machinery . . ."

Added Byron Engle, public safety director for the Agency for International Development: Community relations programs are needed "to maintain the important communication link between the police and the people and encourage better respect of the police organization, its acceptance by the population."

Such relations, said Police Chief William M. Lombard of Rochester, N.Y., provide "one of the necessary measures to bridge the gap between the police and the minority group in the community."

Plane Wreckage Found In Ohio; Two Men Killed

LONDON, Ohio (AP) — The wreckage of a small plane which carried two men to their deaths was found in a cornfield Thursday, ending a day-long search by the Civil Air Patrol.

The victims were Wendell Stout, 21, Batavia, Ohio, the pilot, and John Bocklage, 26, Pittsford, N.Y., a student pilot.

The plane, a red and white Piper Cherokee, was reported missing Wednesday night after it left Columbus for Lunken Airport at Cincinnati.

The cause of the crash was not known, but the Ohio Highway Patrol said Stout ran into bad weather and apparently had to try and make an emergency landing.

The plane was demolished. It was found near South Solon near the Madison-Greene County line by Lloyd Kerris and Kyle Gerhardt of the Springfield Civil Air Patrol.

The CAP used 51 planes and piled up 220 man-hours in searching for the craft.

Radeschi Issues Hints

Businessmen, Shoppers Warned Of Yule Rackets

Police Chief A. J. Radeschi warned merchants, shoppers and householders today against the petty thieves, confidence men, burglars and other criminals who take advantage of the hustle and bustle of the holiday season to reap the year's biggest harvest from the unwary.

The chief isued a series of hints designed to cut down on thievery, swindling and burglary that always mark the season.

HE WARNED that passers of counterfeit money and fraudulent checks always are especially active in rush periods. Merchants should instruct their clerks to check large - denomination bills carefully and not to cash a check unless they know the endorser personally or the check has been approved by the management, the chief said.

If a clerk suspects he has been handed a phony check or a bad bill, he should attempt to delay the passer while someone else notifies the police department by telephone, Radeschi said. Short-change artists also are active, he warned. They make a specialty of confusing clerks with glib talk, then walking away with their own money and some of the store's as well.

Clerks also should be instructed to be watchful for shoplifters, since crowds provide good cover for petty thievery, Radeschi said.

Merchants were advised not to keep large amounts of cash in their business places overnight. Such a practice is an invitation to burglary, Radeschi said. The police department will be glad to provide escort service to a bank's night depository if the management will make the request, the chief said.

BEFORE LOCKING the store for the day, the businessman should check restrooms and other out - of - the - way spots to make certain a thief is not hiding, waiting to loot the building, the chief continued. Businessmen should make certain all their doors and windows are locked and the entrances of the store as well as the interior are well - lighted. He also offered these suggestions:

Shoppers should not carry unusually large amounts of money —only the sum they feel they will need for purchases. Pickpockets take advantage of crowds to ply their trade.

Women should not leave their purses unwatched on a counter while examining merchandise, since this provides a perfect opportunity for a thief to remove the currency and escape undetected.

When placing purchases in an unattended parked car, they should be locked in the trunk and not scattered on the seats in plain view of passersby. Even though an auto is locked, a skilled thief can gain entry in a matter of moments.

When possible, autos should be parked in well - lighted areas as a further discouragement to theft or vandalism.

THIEVES recognize that many families are away from home on evenings in the holiday season and take advantage of the fact to loot households of valuables.

When departing for the evening, the family should leave the house well - lighted to help discourage intruders and also make certain that all doors and windows are locked securely. The garage doors should not be left open, because the fact the family car is missing sometimes provides a tip to burglars.

Large amounts of cash or valuable jewelry kept on the premises were termed another invitation to thievery.

Sacajawea, as an Indian guide, was the only woman on the Lewis and Clark expedition.

Personalities In The News

BOSTON (AP) — The first woman composer to have her work performed by the Boston Symphony Orchestra had her usual seat reserved in the first balcony today for the orchestra's performance of a piece honoring her 100th birthday Monday.

She is Margaret Ruthven Lang, whose "Dramatic Overture" was performed by the orchestra in 1938, when she was 26. She is one of only five women composers whose works have been performed by the Boston Symphony.

The selection that conductor Eric Leinsdorf has chosen to honor Miss Lang is an old Pilgrim standard, the 100th Psalm.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Jamie Wyeth, 20-year-old artist son of painter Andrew Wyeth, says he has only about two more weeks of work to do on his portrait of the late President John F. Kennedy.

Wyeth said he will show the painting to Mrs. Kennedy as soon as it's completed.

K. Lemoyne Billings, a friend of the Kennedys, said it is hoped someone will buy the painting and present it either to the Kennedy Center for Performing Arts now being built in Washington or to the Kennedy Library in Cambridge, Mass.

CHICAGO (AP)—Dick Gregory, Negro comedian active in civil rights campaigns, began Thursday what he described as a Thanksgiving-to-Christmas fast "lawfully protesting against my government's policy in Vietnam."

Gregory, who previously announced he would be a write-in independent candidate next year for U.S. president, running on a peace platform, said he will consume only water during the 32-day fast period.

"I ask all those who, like myself, are opposed to war to demonstrate their determination by not buying a turkey for Christmas dinner," he said.

Gregory said he will maintain his schedule of personal appearances during the fast, appearing in 26 cities for lectures and concerts.

STOCKHOLM (AP) — Ralph Schoenman, U.S. secretary of the so-called Russell tribunal meeting in Roskilde, Denmark, today was expelled from Sweden after two days in police custody.

Schoenman arrived here two days ago without a passport, which the U.S. authorities have taken from him.

He was stopped at several European airports — Copenhagen, Helsinki, Hamburg and Amsterdam—when trying to find a way to get to the meeting at Roskilde.

He was put aboard an airplane bound for Amsterdam.

The tribunal, named for Lord Bertrand Russell, is trying U.S. officials in absentia for alleged war crimes in Vietnam.

FACIAL BLOTCHES AND THE PILL
Q. I have been taking "the pill" for about two years and have developed brownish blotches on my face and neck. If I stop the pill will the blotches go away?
A. Blotchy discoloration similar to that which you describe may occur during pregnancy, and tends to persist. So, apparently, do blotches arising during oral contraceptive administration, even after stopping "the pill". Discuss the condition with your doctor.
COPPER COOKING UTENSILS
Q. Is it safe to cook food in copper utensils?
A. Copper cooking vessels are safe to use in that they do not impart harmful quantities of copper to food. However, copper reacts with certain food elements and for this reason copper vessels are seldom used in the preparation of food. For example, vitamin C is rapidly destroyed if foods containing this vitamin are heated in contact with copper.

Bright Paris Streets

PARIS (AP) — The streets of Paris are being lit up as never before for Christmas with colored lights, suspended stars and oversized snowflake designs. More than 100 main arteries are included under the plan of Prefect Maurice Doublet to supplement the decorating that has been done traditionally by stores and office buildings. Focal points are the Arch of Triumph, the Louvre, the Seine bridges and Notre Dame Cathedral.

To use slices of leftover roast beef, spread them with prepared mustard and coat with fine dry bread crumbs. Fry the breaded slices in hot butter, browning on both sides. Serve with horseradish.

Personalities In The News

BOSTON (AP) — The first woman composer to have her work performed by the Boston Symphony Orchestra had her usual seat reserved in the first balcony today for the orchestra's performance of a piece honoring her 100th birthday Monday.

She is Margaret Ruthven Lang, whose "Dramatic Overture" was performed by the orchestra in 1938, when she was 26. She is one of only five women composers whose works have been performed by the Boston Symphony.

The selection that conductor Eric Leinsdorf has chosen to honor Miss Lang is an old Pilgrim standard, the 100th Psalm.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Jamie Wyeth, 20-year-old artist son of painter Andrew Wyeth, says he has only about two more weeks of work to do on his portrait of the late President John F. Kennedy.

Wyeth said he will show the painting to Mrs. Kennedy as soon as it's completed.

K. Lemoyne Billings, a friend of the Kennedys, said it is hoped someone will buy the painting and present it either to the Kennedy Center for Performing Arts now being built in Washington or to the Kennedy Library in Cambridge, Mass.

Gregory, who previously announced he would be a write-in independent candidate next year for U.S. president, running on a peace platform, said he will consume only water during the 32-day fast period.

"I ask all those who, like myself, are opposed to war to demonstrate their determination by not buying a turkey for Christmas dinner," he said.

Gregory said he will maintain his schedule of personal appearances during the fast, appearing in 26 cities for lectures and concerts.

STOCKHOLM (AP) — Ralph Schoenman, U.S. secretary of the so-called Russell tribunal meeting in Roskilde, Denmark, today was expelled from Sweden after two days in police custody.

Schoenman arrived here two days ago without a passport, which the U.S. authorities have taken from him.

He was stopped at several European airports — Copenhagen, Helsinki, Hamburg and Amsterdam—when trying to find a way to get to the meeting at Roskilde.

He was put aboard an airplane bound for Amsterdam.

The tribunal, named for Lord Bertrand Russell, is trying U.S. officials in absentia for alleged war crimes in Vietnam.

Ohio Traffic Mishaps Take 9 More Lives

By The Associated Press

Ohio's Thanksgiving weekend traffic death toll was one of the highest in the nation by this morning, with most of the fatalities recorded in northern Ohio.

At least nine Buckeye State deaths were reported.

A probable death toll of 35 has been forecast by the State Highway Safety Department for the period that began 6 p.m. Wednesday and ends at midnight Sunday.

The holiday fatalities:

Wednesday night

Ronald A. Bergener, 22, Massillon, was killed Wednesday night when his motorcycle collided with a car two miles west of Massillon.

Ava Emma Finfrock, 55, Rt. 1, Franklin, was killed Wednesday night as her car and a tractor-trailer truck collided at a Montgomery County intersection.

Thursday

John McFarlin, 23, North Fairfield, Huron County, died Thursday when his car and a truck collided at an intersection east of Norwalk.

Jesse E. Bowles, about 39, Grand Rapids, Mich., was killed Thursday when his car, parked on a rural road near Dayton without lights, was struck by another auto.

Homer Frame, 32, Akron, died Thursday in a two-car head-on collision in Cuyahoga Falls.

Velma F. Drummond, 78, Bowling Green, was killed Thursday in a three-car accident on the recently opened Highway 30 Bypass north of Van Wert.

John A. Jones Jr., 28, Lima, was killed Thursday when his car hit another auto and then crashed into a tree in Lima.

Richard J. Pierce, 21, Warren, was injured Wednesday night when struck by a car in Warren. He died Thursday night of the injuries.

Randall A. Fonte, 18, of Canton, a soldier home on leave, was killed when a car carrying him and three other teen-age boys crashed just south of Canton Thursday night.

For an interesting salad marinate drained cooked broccoli in French dressing and serve on lettuce; top with a little sour cream (the commercial kind) mixed with mayonnaise; sprinkle with paprika.

THOSE FANTASTIC FREEWAYS are supposed to be able to handle large volumes of traffic, but are they now doubling for jet travel? Sepulveda Boulevard at the Los Angeles International Airport includes some interesting sights, since cars and trucks travel through an underpass that goes beneath airport runways. From several hundred yards back it looks as though big birds like this one just leaving the ground are part of freeway traffic.

Cypriot and two bomb blasts in the Greek quarter of Nicosia. In the Turkish section of the capital, Turkish Cypriots dug fortifications and put up barricades.

The new crisis on the island developed last week after a battle in which 25 Turkish Cypriots and two Greek Cypriots were killed.

A U.N. peace force has patrolled Cyprus since a civil war in 1964 that erupted after the Greek Cypriot majority revoked special rights given the Turkish minority in the independence agreement with Britain.

Turkey blamed the battle last week on Gen. George Grivas, commander of Greek and Greek Cypriot forces on the island, and charged Greece had landed additional troops on Cyprus. Ankara issued an ultimatum that Turkish forces would be sent if the Greeks were not withdrawn.

Greece in reply proposed talks on insuring the safety of the island's two communities, but the Turkish Cabinet rejected this Thursday. Greece did not acknowledge that she had sent more soldiers to the island.

Diplomatic sources in Athens said the Greek government felt it had already made a conciliatory gesture by withdrawing Grivas from the island and forbidding him to return.

virtually all of them eventually will get the M16.

Westmoreland reportedly won approval in principle of his proposal but details aren't firmly set. No dollar figure on the cost of the project was available.

Detailing his plans at the National Press Club last Tuesday, Westmoreland said that in 1968 his command intends to "provide new military equipment to revitalize the Vietnamese army, and prepare it to take on an ever-increasing share of the war."

He also forecast that next year the United States is counting on decreasing the number of military advisers "where the professional competence of Vietnamese officers makes this possible."

had the help of seven other nations in a gold pool now digging into its reserves to satisfy the new demand. The pool was founded to stabilize the price of gold—and the value of currencies pegged to it—by buying or selling whatever was needed to satisfy the market. At least half the gold going through the pool

The gold rush was expedited to the anxious buyers comes from Ft. Knox.

by the French announcement Monday that France had quit the pool in June and the obviously calculated leak of word that President Charles de Gaulle was preparing to demand U.S. gold for France's dollar holdings.

Both Belgium and Italy were reported on the brink of leaving the pool despite denials in both Brussels and Rome.

British government officials wrest financial leadership of the world from the United States and Britain.

The British informants said one American line of defense is to halt American investment in Western Europe, particularly France, and dry up the French supply of dollars available for conversion into gold.

Another defense, they said, would be to remove the gold backing for the dollar, thus freeing $10 billion of the $13 billion worth of gold in Ft. Knox to meet the rush.

They said the dollar would be in real trouble only if all holders of the $14 billion worth of U.S. overseas liabilities got together and demanded gold at one time. Few believed that likely.

The rush on gold began Wednesday and within a few hours 20 tons of bullion—worth about $23 million—had been bought. Market officials said well over 100 tons, about $112 million worth, was bought Thursday.

Revival Services To Open Monday At Area Church

The Rev. Jerald Parker of East Palestine, Ohio, will be the guest speaker at special revival services starting Monday at 7:30 p. m. at the Midland Heights Church of the Nazarene.

All services will be in the Fairview AME Zion Mission building on the Cow Hollow Rd., the Rev. Herbert Hull, pastor, announced. The congregation formerly met Sunday afternoons in the Midland Heights Community Building.

The new schedule of services includes Sunday School at 9:45 a. m., and worship services on Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7 p.m. A prayer and praise service will be held each Wednesday at 7:30 p. m.

The special revival effort will continue for an indefinite period of time, Rev. Hull announced.

Mrs. Opal Rosa is the Sunday School superintendent.

Nasser, in his first public statement in four months, said he was not satisfied with the U.N. peace formula adopted on Wednesday. Israel has said it was willing to cooperate with the proposal.

The plan, sponsored by Britain, calls for appointment of a neutral peacemaker to promote a permanent settlement, Israeli withdrawal "from territories occupied in the recent conflict," an end to the Arab state of belligerency with Israel and the recognition of all nations in the Middle East "to live in peace within secure and recognized boundaries."

Rather than endorse this, Nasser said "time is on our side" and that Egyptian forces should wait until ready.

"When the time comes, we will not be on the defensive," he declared. "If we resort to military action, our friends would understand and even support us."

Gunnar Jarring, the Swedish ambassador to the Soviet Union, has been named special U.N. mediator for the Middle East. He said he would probably fly from Moscow to New York Sunday for talks with U.N. Secretary-General U Thant.

"It's not been possible to follow the situation too closely from here," Jarring said. "I'm not entirely in the picture, so I can't comment."

The Army said it "sincerely regrets this error and the resultant heartbreak caused the family of both soldiers." Tichenor's body is being disinterred and will be shipped to Louisville for reburial.

Tichenor's widow, Thelma, was notified in Louisville by a chaplain from Ft. Knox of Tichenor's death and mistaken burial. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Tichenor, also live in Louisville.

Guinn, after visiting his mother, will be reassigned to Ft. Bragg, N.C.

One of 10 children, Guinn was drafted last April and went to Vietnam as a member of Company A, 1st Battalion, 35th Infantry, 4th Infantry Division. Tichenor was in the 31st Regiment of the 4th Infantry.

Guinn's parents are divorced. Mrs. Guinn said John's father could not be located for the funeral and may not know what has happened.

William Adkins, Guinn's uncle, said his sister was so grief stricken when informed her son was killed Nov. 9 that she had to be placed under sedation.

Three Army officers came to her home Wednesday night and told her the son was alive, Adkins said, but she remained unconvinced until the Thanksgiving Day call.

Doubts about the body's identity began to grow among other members of the family when they received a letter mailed Nov. 11, two days after Guinn's reported death, and postmarked Nov. 12.

The mother, in her 60s, said she placed a wristwatch purchased for her son's Christmas in the grave with the Kentucky soldier. Now, she said, she wants to deliver to Tichenor's family the medals given her as her son's.

Ohio Traffic Mishaps Take 9 More Lives

By The Associated Press

Ohio's Thanksgiving weekend traffic death toll was one of the highest in the nation by this morning, with most of the fatalities recorded in northern Ohio.

At least nine Buckeye State deaths were reported.

A probable death toll of 35 has been forecast by the State Highway Safety Department for the period that began 6 p.m. Wednesday and ends at midnight Sunday.

The holiday fatalities:

Wednesday night

Ronald A. Bergener, 22, Massillon, was killed Wednesday night when his motorcycle collided with a car two miles west of Massillon.

Ava Emma Finfrock, 55, Rt. 1, Franklin, was killed Wednesday night as her car and a tractor-trailer truck collided at a Montgomery County intersection.

Thursday

John McFarlin, 23, North Fairfield, Huron County, died Thursday when his car and a truck collided at an intersection east of Norwalk.

Jesse E. Bowles, about 39, Grand Rapids, Mich., was killed Thursday when his car, parked on a rural road near Dayton without lights, was struck by another auto.

Homer Frame, 32, Akron, died Thursday in a two-car head-on collision in Cuyahoga Falls.

Velma F. Drummond, 78, Bowling Green, was killed Thursday in a three-car accident on the recently opened Highway 30 Bypass north of Van Wert.

John A. Jones Jr., 28, Lima, was killed Thursday when his car hit another auto and then crashed into a tree in Lima.

Richard J. Pierce, 21, Warren, was injured Wednesday night when struck by a car in Warren. He died Thursday night of the injuries.

Randall A. Fonte, 18, of Canton, a soldier home on leave, was killed when a car carrying him and three other teen-age boys crashed just south of Canton Thursday night.

For an interesting salad marinate drained cooked broccoli in French dressing and serve on lettuce; top with a little sour cream (the commercial kind) mixed with mayonnaise; sprinkle with paprika.

THOSE FANTASTIC FREEWAYS are supposed to be able to handle large volumes of traffic, but are they now doubling for jet travel? Sepulveda Boulevard at the Los Angeles International Airport includes some interesting sights, since cars and trucks travel through an underpass that goes beneath airport runways. From several hundred yards back it looks as though big birds like this one just leaving the ground are part of freeway traffic.

Cypriot and two bomb blasts in the Greek quarter of Nicosia. In the Turkish section of the capital, Turkish Cypriots dug fortifications and put up barricades.

The new crisis on the island developed last week after a battle in which 25 Turkish Cypriots and two Greek Cypriots were killed.

A U.N. peace force has patrolled Cyprus since a civil war in 1964 that erupted after the Greek Cypriot majority revoked special rights given the Turkish minority in the independence agreement with Britain.

Turkey blamed the battle last week on Gen. George Grivas, commander of Greek and Greek Cypriot forces on the island, and charged Greece had landed additional troops on Cyprus. Ankara issued an ultimatum that Turkish forces would be sent if the Greeks were not withdrawn.

Greece in reply proposed talks on insuring the safety of the island's two communities, but the Turkish Cabinet rejected this Thursday. Greece did not acknowledge that she had sent more soldiers to the island.

Diplomatic sources in Athens said the Greek government felt it had already made a conciliatory gesture by withdrawing Grivas from the island and forbidding him to return.

Westmoreland reportedly won approval in principle of his proposal but details aren't firmly set. No dollar figure on the cost of the project was available.

Detailing his plans at the National Press Club last Tuesday, Westmoreland said that in 1968 his command intends to "provide new military equipment to revitalize the Vietnamese army, and prepare it to take on an ever-increasing share of the war."

He also forecast that next year the United States is counting on decreasing the number of military advisers "where the professional competence of Vietnamese officers makes this possible."

The pool was founded to stabilize the price of gold—and the value of currencies pegged to it—by buying or selling whatever was needed to satisfy the market. The gold rush was expedited to the anxious buyers comes from Ft. Knox.

by the French announcement Monday that France had quit the pool in June and the obviously calculated leak of word that President Charles de Gaulle was preparing to demand U.S. gold for France's dollar holdings.

Both Belgium and Italy were reported on the brink of leaving the pool despite denials in both Brussels and Rome.

British government officials wrest financial leadership of the world from the United States and Britain.

The British informants said one American line of defense is to halt American investment in Western Europe, particularly France, and dry up the French supply of dollars available for conversion into gold.

Another defense, they said, would be to remove the gold backing for the dollar, thus freeing $10 billion of the $13 billion worth of gold in Ft. Knox to meet the rush.

They said the dollar would be in real trouble only if all holders of the $14 billion worth of U.S. overseas liabilities got together and demanded gold at one time. Few believed that likely.

The rush on gold began Wednesday and within a few hours 20 tons of bullion—worth about $23 million—had been bought. Market officials said well over 100 tons, about $112 million worth, was bought Thursday.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: To put it bluntly, what can be done about friends who don't know when to go home?

Some people think that just because it's a Friday or Saturday night and they can sleep until noon the next day, everyone in the world can. It so happens that Saturday is my husband's busiest day and Sunday morning we must get up to go to church.

Last Friday two couples sat here until 2:50 a.m. and I was ready to climb the walls. My husband kept signaling me to get rid of them and I did drop several hints — but nobody budged.

Please come up with an answer, Ann. We need your help. — TRAPPED TILL DAWN.

-:-

Dear Trapped: I've always operated on the theory that nothing very brilliant gets said after midnight, particularly if the booze is flowing — and it usually is.

I also notice that the reluctance of guests to go home is in direct relation to the amount of liquor they have consumed.

Most home parties are dinners which begin about 7 o'clock. I figure five hours of food, drink and witty conversation is enough for anybody. At midnight I stand and say, "It's been a wonderful evening and tomorrow is here already, so good night everybody."

For those who are hard of hearing or pretend to be, I add another sentence: "The party is over. Good night one and all." The wives invariably take it from there.

Prying Lens

Dear Ann: Every Christmas an organization in our city exercises the fine tradition of buying new shoes for needy children. The group's generosity is duly covered on TV, which I suppose is fair enough from the organization's standpoint. My concern is for the children.

When the TV camera dollies in and catches these tykes close up, most of them cringe in embarrassment. I have the feeling something more is involved than camera shyness. From my own experience back in the depression, I suspect some of these kids are aware of the charity involved and they resent having their pride crushed in public. They also run the risk of humiliating comments from their classmates.

Surely there are ways to protect these kids without inhibiting news coverage. Why couldn't they show the small feet with new shoes and not show the youngsters' faces?

If you print my letter I'll consider it my Christmas present to the underprivileged children in our community. I'll also donate the price of a pair of new shoes for one of the kids. — PORTLAND, ORE.

-:-

Dear Portland: Here's your letter and my thanks to you for writing it. Let us hope the TV director follows your suggestion. It's a good one.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

CHAIRMAN for the 1968 National Easter Seal Campaign, singer Dinah Shore will open the annual appeal of the National Society of Crippled Children and Adults March 1. Activities, continuing up to Easter Sunday, April 14, include the traditional ceremony at the White House and television, radio and personal appearances throughout the country.

Santa To Arrive

Yule Parade At Midland Set Saturday Afternoon

Midland will herald in the yule season Saturday with the annual community parade, which is expected to attract a large crowd.

Santa Claus will be the honored guest at the event sponsored by the Midland Area Chamber of Commerce.

The parade will feature bands, floats and various other units. Chamber officials said all arrangements have been completed.

The parade will form at 12:30 p. m. at the 1st St. playground and the units will move at 1 down Midland Ave.

Santa will ride atop the ladder truck of the Midland volunteer fire department. A special guest again this year will be Tinkerbelle.

The Lincoln High School and Western Beaver High School marching bands will participate Floats have been entered by the Midland Lions Club and the Midland Junior Women's Clubs.

John Reider, who is serving as parade chairman, said prizes will be awarded the best floats.

Treats will be provided for children. These will be distributed at the firehall immediately following the parade.

Santa will be aided by the Midland high majorettes, volunteer firemen and auxiliary policemen. Ed Bishoff is in charge of the treats.

The community has been "decorated" for the event. The Chamber said Christmas lighting has been installed along Midland Ave. Small decorated trees have been placed on light standards along the thorofare. William Verzella headed the lighting committee.

A large community Christmas tree has been erected at 7th St. and Midland Ave. No tree was erected last year, but Girl Scout Troop 60 voted to do the work as a troop project. The leaders are Mrs. William Monac Jr. and Mrs. Ivan Francis.

Others in the community assisted the girls in the work.

Chamber officials said an added attraction this year will be a "Santaland."

It will be set up at 703 Midland Ave. and Santa will be present at various times to greet children.

Santaland will be open from 7 to 9 p. m. Dec. 11 to 15 and Dec. 18 to 22.

As part of this project, students in art classes at Lincoln High School have been making figures from paper to decorate Santaland. Lawrence Novak is the instructor.

The Chamber said children may have their picture taken with Santa at a nominal cost.

Les Smith, Chamber president, Reider and Santa will serve as parade judges.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: To put it bluntly, what can be done about friends who don't know when to go home?

Some people think that just because it's a Friday or Saturday night and they can sleep until noon the next day, everyone in the world can. It so happens that Saturday is my husband's busiest day and Sunday morning we must get up to go to church.

Last Friday two couples sat here until 2:50 a.m. and I was ready to climb the walls. My husband kept signaling me to get rid of them and I did drop several hints — but nobody budged.

Please come up with an answer, Ann. We need your help. — TRAPPED TILL DAWN.

-:-

Dear Trapped: I've always operated on the theory that nothing very brilliant gets said after midnight, particularly if the booze is flowing — and it usually is.

I also notice that the reluctance of guests to go home is in direct relation to the amount of liquor they have consumed.

Most home parties are dinners which begin about 7 o'clock. I figure five hours of food, drink and witty conversation is enough for anybody. At midnight I stand and say, "It's been a wonderful evening and tomorrow is here already, so good night everybody."

For those who are hard of hearing or pretend to be, I add another sentence: "The party is over. Good night one and all." The wives invariably take it from there.

Prying Lens

Dear Ann: Every Christmas an organization in our city exercises the fine tradition of buying new shoes for needy children. The group's generosity is duly covered on TV, which I suppose is fair enough from the organization's standpoint. My concern is for the children.

When the TV camera dollies in and catches these tykes close up, most of them cringe in embarrassment. I have the feeling something more is involved than camera shyness. From my own experience back in the depression, I suspect some of these kids are aware of the charity involved and they resent having their pride crushed in public. They also run the risk of humiliating comments from their classmates.

Surely there are ways to protect these kids without inhibiting news coverage. Why couldn't they show the small feet with new shoes and not show the youngsters' faces?

If you print my letter I'll consider it my Christmas present to the underprivileged children in our community. I'll also donate the price of a pair of new shoes for one of the kids. — PORTLAND, ORE.

-:-

Dear Portland: Here's your letter and my thanks to you for writing it. Let us hope the TV director follows your suggestion. It's a good one.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

CHAIRMAN for the 1968 National Easter Seal Campaign, singer Dinah Shore will open the annual appeal of the National Society of Crippled Children and Adults March 1. Santa To Arrive

Yule Parade At Midland Set Saturday Afternoon

Midland will herald in the yule season Saturday with the annual community parade, which is expected to attract a large crowd.

Santa Claus will be the honored guest at the event sponsored by the Midland Area Chamber of Commerce.

The parade will feature bands, floats and various other units. Chamber officials said all arrangements have been completed.

The parade will form at 12:30 p. m. at the 1st St. playground and the units will move at 1 down Midland Ave.

Santa will ride atop the ladder truck of the Midland volunteer fire department. A special guest again this year will be Tinkerbelle.

The Lincoln High School and Western Beaver High School marching bands will participate. Floats have been entered by the Midland Lions Club and the Midland Junior Women's Clubs.

John Reider, who is serving as parade chairman, said prizes will be awarded the best floats.

Treats will be provided for children. These will be distributed at the firehall immediately following the parade.

Santa will be aided by the Midland high majorettes, volunteer firemen and auxiliary policemen. Ed Bishoff is in charge of the treats.

The community has been "decorated" for the event. The Chamber said Christmas lighting has been installed along Midland Ave. Small decorated trees have been placed on light standards along the thorofare. William Verzella headed the lighting committee.

A large community Christmas tree has been erected at 7th St. and Midland Ave. No tree was erected last year, but Girl Scout Troop 60 voted to do the work as a troop project. The leaders are Mrs. William Monac Jr. and Mrs. Ivan Francis.

Others in the community assisted the girls in the work.

Chamber officials said an added attraction this year will be a "Santaland."

It will be set up at 703 Midland Ave. and Santa will be present at various times to greet children.

Santaland will be open from 7 to 9 p. m. Dec. 11 to 15 and Dec. 18 to 22.

As part of this project, students in art classes at Lincoln High School have been making figures from paper to decorate Santaland. Lawrence Novak is the instructor.

The Chamber said children may have their picture taken with Santa at a nominal cost.

Les Smith, Chamber president, Reider and Santa will serve as parade judges.

Davis, owner of the recently-opened market which was robbed the first day it operated, said a delivery truck apparently caused the minor damage Wednesday and it went unnoticed until today.

Durham notified Chester police, who investigated.

Snake Handler 'Serious' After Bite By Reptile

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — While 50 tourists watched, a deadly Australian tiger snake plunged its fangs into the hand of Bill Haast, a professional snake handler. He is reported in serious condition, suffering from his 102nd and most dangerous snakebite.

"It was a brand new snake being handled for the first time," said Clarita Haast, wife of the 56-year-old herpetologist and his partner in the Miami Serpentarium, a tourist attraction.

Haast was rushed to a hospital in critical condition Thursday. After several hours in the intensive care ward, his condition was reported somewhat improved.

Haast claims he has built up immunity from snakebites through injecting himself over the last 19 years with a potion mixed from the venom of cobras, the green mamba, the coral snake and the Indian blue krait.

Doctors inject such serum into horses, then bleed them to use their blood for snakebite remedy—but the horses usually die within two years.

After many of his snakebites —almost all of them suffered while taking venom daily from the snakes among the 700 reptiles at his serpent farm—Haast has refused medical attention because of his belief in his immunity.

Sometimes he has been near death, paralyzed, when rushed to a hospital. After one bite by a king cobra Haast pulled the fangs from his arm, cleansed the snake's mouth so it would not suffer ill effects, and continued his work until the venom began to work.

His eyelids drooped and his knees went rubbery. Breathing was difficult and he said sounds were tremendously magnified and colors wildly brilliant.

Total paralysis wrapped his legs and he could not speak or open his eyes. He arrived at a hospital stiff as a plank.

"One moment, I was fighting for breath like a drowning person," Haast said. "Then a great wave of relief swept over me, like the relief a badly beaten fighter must feel when the bell ends the last round. I think this is the feeling of death."

Malaysian Protests Against Devaluation Stir Race Riots

PENANG, Malaysia (AP) — The Malaysian government rushed police reinforcements and army troops tonight to this tropical island city after day-long demonstrations that began as protests against currency devaluation and turned into racial clashes.

Despite almost continuous demonstrations that smashed the windows of many buildings including the U.S. information Service cultural center, the police reported only three police officers and three civilians injured.

There were fears the casualties would mount if the Chinese and the Malays, Malaysia's two main racial groups, do not halt their clashes in north Malaysia's largest city.

Many of the demonstrations were broken up with tear gas. The local police chief and Deputy Prime Minister Tun Abdul Razak reported the situation under control at dusk.

Razak, speaking to newsmen in Kuala Lumpur, the Malaysian capital 180 miles south Penang blamed the trouble on "Communist elements who were trying to use schoolboys to carry out their objectives to create chaos."

The demonstrations began shortly after dawn. Gangs of Chinese youths on bicycles and motor scooters began searching for shops that had opened in defiance of a general strike called by the left-wing Labor party to protest the 14.3 per cent devaluation of the old sterling-backed Malayan dollar last weekend.

The youths routed hundreds of persons from restaurants and foodstalls that were serving breakfast.

Furniture was smashed and windows were broken at many shops.

Morasca was backing the car down snow-covered Pennsylvania 337.

Torn Electric Box Stirs Investigation

An electric box, apparently torn off by a passing truck, was discovered by the Hancock County sheriff's department this morning at the new Davis IGA Foodliner in Chester.

Deputies said Chief Arnie Durham, who checked the building this morning, discovered the box at the rear of the building.

Davis, owner of the recently-opened market which was robbed the first day it operated, said a delivery truck apparently caused the minor damage Wednesday and it went unnoticed until today.

Durham notified Chester police, who investigated.

Farm Survey Planned For South Side Area

Farmers in the South Side area have been requested to assist in a livestock survey which began this week.

Postmasters Phyllis Mackall of Georgetown and Olive Floyd of Hookstown said the Post Office Department and U.S. Agriculture Department are cooperating in the project.

Survey cards are to be delivered to mailboxes selected at random on rural routes. The survey is used to determine estimates of livestock, poultry and other production factors.

Firm's Founder Dies

BOYNTON BEACH, Fla. (AP — Walter Gramm, founder of the Great Lakes Carbon Corp. died Thursday at the age of 74. Gramm, who started his career as a coal salesman, was chairman of the board at his death. He formed the Great Lakes Coal and Coke Co. in Chicago in 1919. The company was reorganized as the Great Lakes Carbon Corp. in 1939.

At Tourist Attraction

Snake Handler 'Serious' After Bite By Reptile

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — While 50 tourists watched, a deadly Australian tiger snake plunged its fangs into the hand of Bill Haast, a professional snake handler. He is reported in serious condition, suffering from his 102nd and most dangerous snakebite.

"It was a brand new snake being handled for the first time," said Clarita Haast, wife of the 56-year-old herpetologist and his partner in the Miami Serpentarium, a tourist attraction.

Haast was rushed to a hospital in critical condition Thursday. After several hours in the intensive care ward, his condition was reported somewhat improved.

Haast claims he has built up immunity from snakebites through injecting himself over the last 19 years with a potion mixed from the venom of cobras, the green mamba, the coral snake and the Indian blue krait.

Doctors inject such serum into horses, then bleed them to use their blood for snakebite remedy—but the horses usually die within two years.

After many of his snakebites —almost all of them suffered while taking venom daily from the snakes among the 700 reptiles at his serpent farm—Haast has refused medical attention because of his belief in his immunity.

Sometimes he has been near death, paralyzed, when rushed to a hospital. After one bite by a king cobra Haast pulled the fangs from his arm, cleansed the snake's mouth so it would not suffer ill effects, and continued his work until the venom began to work.

His eyelids drooped and his knees went rubbery. Breathing was difficult and he said sounds were tremendously magnified and colors wildly brilliant.

Total paralysis wrapped his legs and he could not speak or open his eyes. He arrived at a hospital stiff as a plank.

"One moment, I was fighting for breath like a drowning person," Haast said. "Then a great wave of relief swept over me, like the relief a badly beaten fighter must feel when the bell ends the last round. I think this is the feeling of death."

Razak, speaking to newsmen in Kuala Lumpur, the Malaysian capital 180 miles south Penang blamed the trouble on "Communist elements who were trying to use schoolboys to carry out their objectives to create chaos."

The demonstrations began shortly after dawn. Gangs of Chinese youths on bicycles and motor scooters began searching for shops that had opened in defiance of a general strike called by the left-wing Labor party to protest the 14.3 per cent devaluation of the old sterling-backed Malayan dollar last weekend.

The youths routed hundreds of persons from restaurants and foodstalls that were serving breakfast.

Hargett Leads Aggies To Title, Cotton Bowl Date

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

No one gave Texas A&M a ghost of a chance to win the Southwest Conference football championship when the Aggies lost their first four games of the season to Southern Methodist, Purdue, Louisiana State and Florida State.

But they didn't reckon with the heroics of quarterback Edd Hargett from the little Texas town of Linden.

He beat Texas Tech by running for a touchdown as time ran out, threw three touchdown passes to beat Arkansas, hurled two TD passes to beat Baylor and on Thursday hurled an 80-yard pass in the last quarter that beat Texas 10-7.

Their sixth straight victory not only gave the Aggies the SWC title and an automatic spot in the Cotton Bowl against Alabama on New Year's Day. It also put the University of Miami Hurricanes in the Bluebonnet Bowl against Colorado Dec. 23 at Houston.

Oklahoma, fifth-ranked in The Associated Press poll and already picked to oppose second-ranked Tennessee in the Orange Bowl at Miami, also came from behind to down Nebraska 21-14.

A crowd of 60,048 at Lincoln, Neb. plus a national television audience saw the Sooners beat the Cornhuskers on a 23-yard run by Eddie Hinton. The victory clinched the undisputed Big Eight crown for the Sooners who end their regular season next week against Oklahoma State.

Virginia Military edged Virginia Tech 12-10 in the 63rd renewal of the Military Classic of the South at Roanoke, Va., and Toledo crushed Villanova 52-6 at Toledo in other major games on Thanksgiving Day.

A seven-yard pass from Russ Quay to John Hince with 2½ minutes left gave the VMI Keydets their winning TD over VPI.

John Schneider hurled touchdown passes of 51 and 63 yards and Roland Moss scored three TDs to lead Toledo over Villanova. It was the ninth straight victory for the Rockets, co-champions of the Mid-American Conference.

Southern Mississippi walloped Louisiana Tech 58-7, Idaho State edged Portland State 22-21, Middle Tennessee downed Tennessee Tech 33-20 and Hofstra blanked C. W. Post 19-0 in other Turkey Day rivalries.

A capacity crowd of 50,000 at College Station, Tex., cheered Hargett after his winning TD pass to Bob Long that pulled the Aggies from behind a 10-7 deficit to beat Texas in the 74th game of the storied series.

The Aggies had the ball on their own 20 when Hargett faded back and threw the ball far down field. Long grabbed it on the Texas 36 and ran the rest of the way.

Oklahoma Rallies To Top Nebraska

Nebraska had rallied from behind a 13-0 score to lead Oklahoma 14-13 at halftime before the Sooners pulled it out in the last quarter.

A short Nebraska punt gave Oklahoma the ball on the Husker 33.

A 10-yard pass, Bob Warmack to Steve Zabel, preceded Hinton's 23-yard sprint for the winning TD.

Nebraska had been expected to land a Liberty Bowl bid in the event of a victory over Oklahoma, but the Huskers' defeat did not definitely eliminate them of the chance to meet Georgia at Memphis Dec. 16.

"I wouldn't say the loss to Oklahoma eliminated Nebraska," said A. F. "Bud" Dudley, president of the Liberty Bowl. "Nebraska put up a great game."

Miami, whose coach, Charlie Tate, is miffed at not being invited to the Orange Bowl, accepted the bid to the Bluebonnet against Colorado after Texas A&M's victory. Lou Hassell, chairman of the Bluebonnet Selection Committee, made the announcement in Houston.

The Hurricanes, who play Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl at Miami tonight, had been a standby selection pending the outcome of the Texas A&M-Texas game.

The bowl picture will be further clarified on Saturday when the opponents of Southern California in the Rose Bowl and Penn State in the Gator Bowl will be determined.

It will be either Minnesota or Indiana against Southern California, No. 1 in the AP poll. Minnesota takes on winless Wisconsin at Minneapolis while Indiana meets No. 3 Purdue at Bloomington.

If the Hoosiers can upset Purdue they will tie for the Big Ten title, assuming Minnesota whips Wisconsin. In that case Indiana will get the Rose Bowl trip since the Hoosiers have never been to Pasadena.

The winner of the Florida-Florida State game at Jacksonville will get the bid to the Gator Bowl against Penn State Dec. 30. In the event of a tie, Florida State is reported to have the inside track.

Syracuse, which has eliminated itself from consideration for any bowl, plays UCLA on the West Coast in another leading game Saturday.

In others, Tennessee is at Kentucky, Harvard at Yale, Colorado at Air Force, Houston at Tulsa, Wichita State at Colorado State U., Georgia at Georgia Tech, Arizona at Arizona State and Utah State at San Diego State. In the latter game, San Diego, No. 1 team in the final AP small college poll of the season, will try to beat a team in the major category.

Hayes' 3 Long TD's Pace Cowboys Win

Raiders Clobber Chiefs; LA Wins

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Thanks to Dallas' Bob Hayes and Oakland's stingy defense, the Cowboys and Raiders used Thanksgiving to move closer to a merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

Hayes sped to three long-yardage touchdowns that sparked the Cowboys to a 46-21 victory over St. Louis Thursday night in the Cotton Bowl and sent them nearer the National Football League's Capital Division title and a holiday shot at the NFL championship and Super Bowl.

And at Kansas City, Oakland intercepted four passes and returned two for touchdowns as it clobbered Kansas City 44-22, enhancing the Raiders' chances of replacing the Chiefs as champions of the American League's Western Division by Christmas and as AFL champs by New Year's Day.

Oakland, 9-1, still has one major obstacle in the West, the San Diego Chargers, 8-1-1, who also have visions of titles after sinking Denver 24-20 in San Diego.

Los Angeles, another NFL hopeful in the Coastal Division, kept after Baltimore by belting Detroit 31-7 in Detroit in the other Thanksgiving Day game.

Dallas retained at least a two-game lead over Philadelphia and Washington with the Eagles playing at New York Sunday and the Redskins at Cleveland. The Rams sit a half-game behind Baltimore, which invades San Francisco.

The other Sunday NFL games match Atlanta against host New Orleans, visiting Green Bay against Chicago and Minnesota against Pittsburgh in Pittsburgh.

Boston plays at Houston and Buffalo at Miami in the AFL before the big clash between Oakland and San Diego the following week.

Hayes turned back the clock for Dallas by racing 69 yards with a punt for a 14-7 lead and then taking touchdown passes of 59 and 34 yards from Don Meredith. Lance Rentzel caught two more scoring passes, one from Meredith and one from Dan Reeves, in the second half of the nationally televised NFL doubleheader.

"I've been watching Hayes develop for three years," said St. Louis safety Larry Wilson. "He's learning to use his speed better and he's a much better receiver. He's probably one of the greatest in the NFL."

"This is what we're looking for. They played like last year," Dallas Coach Tom Landry said, pleased by his offense that showed little signs earlier this season of the explosiveness that won the Eastern Conference title last yar.

Oakland, reversing last year's trend of playing second fiddle to Kansas City, beat the Chiefs for the second time this year as its big, fast front four harassed Kansas City quarterback Len Dawson constantly.

"When Kansas City came out passing, I thought they played into our hands," said Oakland Coach John Rauch after his game that opened an AFL televised doubleheader. "We have great confidence in our pass defense."

Kansas City Coach Hank Stram could not help but praise Oakland, too.

"I feel Oakland has more ability than San Diego. They put so much pressure on you defensively," he said.

The Raiders rush dumped Dawson six times and the secondary knocked down 17 passes as Dawson hit only 11 of 32 passes. Warren Powers set up one Oakland score with an interception and raced 33 yards with another for a touchdown and Willie Brown returned a theft 25 yards for six points.

Los Angeles also relied on its defense, which intercepted two passes and one pitchout and recovered two fumbles, allowing the Lions only 108 total yards.

Detroit scored first when an interception took them to the Rams' eight, but Roman Gabriel then passed for two Los Angeles scores and Les Josephson ran for two.

Dick Post's eight-yard run with 2:33 left for his second touchdown lifted San Diego by Denver. The score was set up by Steve DeLong's recovery of a Charlie Mitchell fumble at the Bronco 24.

Denver had led 14-0 in the second quarter on two touchdown passes by Steve Tensi and still held a 20-10 margin before Speedy Duncan raced 72 yards with a blocked field goal attempt in the last quarter and Post added his score.

Toledo Posts Best Record In Its History

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Toledo, led by quarterback John Schneider who set an Ohio Collegiate total offense record, finished its finest season ever in 50 years of football Thursday by crushing Villanova 52-6. Toledo place kicker Ken Crots also set an NCAA conversion record.

The Rockets lost their opening game and then reeled off nine straight victories, the most ever won in one season by a Toledo team. They were Mid-American Conference co-champions with Ohio University.

Schneider completed 13 of 20 pass attempts against Villanova, including touchdown strikes of 51 yards to Pete Kramer and 63 yards to Roland Moss.

The scrambling quarterback was credited with gaining 300 yards, 227 on passes and 73 by rushing to put him in second place nationally behind Sal Olivas of New Mexico State on offense for the season.

Schneider, 180-pound senior from Toledo, set an Ohio college record with a career total of 4,354 yards, topping the old mark of 4,195 set last season by another quarterback, Carroll Williams of Xavier.

Crots was successful on kicking seven extra points for an NCAA season record of 35 without a miss. He broke the record of 33 set by Charley Gogolak of Princeton in 1965.

Crots also booted a 22-yard field goal against Villanova.

In addition to his touchdown pass from Schneider, Moss scored on runs of 5 and 3 yards and then threw a 29-yard touchdown pass to Dave Daniels.

Toledo got its other scores on runs to three yeards by Tom Beutler and 10 yards by Bob Pfefferle. Beuter, normally a linebacker, played some at offensive fullback.

New Seattle Team Shocks Celtics In 133-106 Win

By The Associated Press

The biggest turkey on Thanksgiving Day proved quite a shock. It turned out to be the Boston Celtics, who played like they ate too much.

The expansion Seattle SuperSonics left the Celtics sitting at the table Thursday night as they mauled Boston 133-106 in the first game of a National Basketball Association doubleheader in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, after watching the slaughter, stayed hungry long enough to dispose of San Diego, the other expansion team, 128-117 in the second game.

In the other two games, the Chicago Bulls pulled out a 106-96 victory over the New York Knickerbockers in Milwaukee, Wis., and Los Angeles whipped Detroit 132-120 in Los Angeles In the ABA, Minnesota beat Pittsburgh 101-75 and Anaheim defeated Oakland 107-95.

Boston, playing like fat cats, watched along with an unbelieving crowd as Seattle ran off 15 straight points in the first quarter for a 25-8 lead. It got still worse for the Celtics as the score climbed to 75-31 at the half and the SuperSonics were well on their way to handing Boston one of its worst defeats in many years.

Bob Rule led Seattle with 26 points and Walt Hazzard chipped in with 22 and 14 assists as the new team won for the fourth time in the last five outings. Bailey Howell had 22 and John Havlicek 21 for Boston.

Philadelphia, taking advantage of the rout, pulled within one game of the Eastern Division leading Celtics by shooting into an 89-64 lead and then holding off a Rocket rally that cut the gap to 107-102.

Wilt Chamberlain, smarting from criticism of his poor scoring, hit a season high of 31 points for the 76ers, who broke a two-game losing streak. John Block had 24 for San Diego, which lost its fourth straight.

The Bulls trailed 50-44 at the half, but Barry Clemens' three-point play tied the score at 82 and seconds later he put Chicago ahead to stay. Keith Erickson, who scored 22 of his 33 points in the last half, helped keep the Knicks back.

Dick Barnett led New York with 26 points as a crowd of 5,048 watched the first NBA regular season game in Milwaukee since the Hawks moved to St. Louis in 1955.

Los Angeles raced to a 91-75 lead, but had to fight off the Pistons with eight quick points by Archie Clark, Mel Counts and Gail Goodrich when Detroit climbed within 124-118 with two minutes left.

Clark finished with 30 points while Eddie Miles had 23 for Detroit.

Olympic Boycott Threatened By Negro Athletes

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A boycott of the 1968 Olympic Games by leading U.S. college Negro athletes was threatened today, and a young professor said it will be carried out.

"This country is not for us," asserted Harry Edwards of San Jose State College in announcing unanimous approval of his plan at a meeting attended by 200 young Negroes.

Outside the South-Central Los Angeles church, where the three-day Black Youth Conference was taking place Thursday, violence erupted between a Black Power group and a small leftist band of pickets shouting obscenities and yellowing such taunts as, "Bourgeois Negroes!" One man was cut severely on the face, another shot in the wrist.

The meeting itself was not disturbed.

Edwards said 50 amateur sports figures attended and endorsed the Olympic walkout.

Among them were Lew Alcinor and Mike Warren, basketball stars of the University of California at Los Angeles, and Tommie Smith and Lee Evans of the world-record mile relay team from San Jose State.

Edwards said the group also included Otis Burrell, former Nevada high jumper, UCLA hurdler Ron Copeland and Hal Griffin, UCLA football player. In addition, he said he has communicated with athletes throughout the Western states and they will "go along."

Although none of the U.S. Olympic teams has been picked, Edwards said Negro athletes supporting a boycott were among those most likely to be chosen for the games next October in Mexico City.

The possibility that their position may soften by that time was ruled out by Edwards, a sociology teacher and former track and basketball star at San Jose State whose discus mark still stands as a school record.

"This is our way of pointing out," he said, "that the United States has no right to set itself up as a leader of the free world. It's a simple fact that America has to be exposed for what it is —America is just as guilty as South Africa ever was."

Racial segregation is the government policy of South Africa.

He said he expects all Negro athletes in the United States to stay away from the Olympics because "these people have to live in black communities and this will have a bearing on whether they compete."

Hargett Leads Aggies To Title, Cotton Bowl Date

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

No one gave Texas A&M a ghost of a chance to win the Southwest Conference football championship when the Aggies lost their first four games of the season to Southern Methodist, Purdue, Louisiana State and Florida State.

But they didn't reckon with the heroics of quarterback Edd Hargett from the little Texas town of Linden.

He beat Texas Tech by running for a touchdown as time ran out, threw three touchdown passes to beat Arkansas, hurled two TD passes to beat Baylor and on Thursday hurled an 80-yard pass in the last quarter that beat Texas 10-7.

Their sixth straight victory not only gave the Aggies the SWC title and an automatic spot in the Cotton Bowl against Alabama on New Year's Day. It also put the University of Miami Hurricanes in the Bluebonnet Bowl against Colorado Dec. 23 at Houston.

Oklahoma, fifth-ranked in The Associated Press poll and already picked to oppose second-ranked Tennessee in the Orange Bowl at Miami, also came from behind to down Nebraska 21-14.

A crowd of 60,048 at Lincoln, Neb. plus a national television audience saw the Sooners beat the Cornhuskers on a 23-yard run by Eddie Hinton. The victory clinched the undisputed Big Eight crown for the Sooners who end their regular season next week against Oklahoma State.

Virginia Military edged Virginia Tech 12-10 in the 63rd renewal of the Military Classic of the South at Roanoke, Va., and Toledo crushed Villanova 52-6 at Toledo in other major games on Thanksgiving Day.

A seven-yard pass from Russ Quay to John Hince with 2½ minutes left gave the VMI Keydets their winning TD over VPI.

John Schneider hurled touchdown passes of 51 and 63 yards and Roland Moss scored three TDs to lead Toledo over Villanova. It was the ninth straight victory for the Rockets, co-champions of the Mid-American Conference.

Southern Mississippi walloped Louisiana Tech 58-7, Idaho State edged Portland State 22-21, Middle Tennessee downed Tennessee Tech 33-20 and Hofstra blanked C. W. Post 19-0 in other Turkey Day rivalries.

A capacity crowd of 50,000 at College Station, Tex., cheered Hargett after his winning TD pass to Bob Long that pulled the Aggies from behind a 10-7 deficit to beat Texas in the 74th game of the storied series.

The Aggies had the ball on their own 20 when Hargett faded back and threw the ball far down field. Long grabbed it on the Texas 36 and ran the rest of the way.

★ ★ ★ Oklahoma Rallies To Top Nebraska ★ ★ ★

Nebraska had rallied from behind a 13-0 score to lead Oklahoma 14-13 at halftime before the Sooners pulled it out in the last quarter.

A short Nebraska punt gave Oklahoma the ball on the Husker 33.

A 10-yard pass, Bob Warmack to Steve Zabel, preceded Hinton's 23-yard sprint for the winning TD.

Nebraska had been expected to land a Liberty Bowl bid in the event of a victory over Oklahoma, but the Huskers' defeat did not definitely eliminate them of the chance to meet Georgia at Memphis Dec. 16.

Muskies Bomb Pipers To Continue Hot Pace

By The Associated Press

The way the Minnesota Muskies are winning games in the American Basketball Association it seems as if they will soon replace the Indiana Pacers at the top of the Eastern Division.

The Muskies moved in a tie for the No. 1 spot with a 101-75 home court victory over the Pittsburgh Pipers Thursday night. It was the Muskies' 12th victory in their last 14 games and gave them a 13-5 record, the same as Indiana's.

The Anaheim Amigos scored a 107-95 road victory over the Oakland Oaks in the other scheduled ABA game. New Orleans had been slated to play at Kentucky, but the game was switched weeks ago to tonight.

Mel Daniels led Minnesota over Pittsburgh with 25 points as the Muskies broke open a close game with a 38-17 spree in the final period. Ira Harge and Connie Hawkins each got 15 for the Pipers.

Anaheim trailed Oakland at the half 58-54, but took command with a burst of 18 straight points in the third period. Warren Davis, 6-foot-7, paced the spree with five straight baskets. He finished with 32 points, 20 in the second half. Ron Franz led the Oaks with 24.

Seattle upset Boston 133-106, Philadelphia beat San Diego 128-117, Chicago humbled New York 106-96 and Los Angeles downed Detroit 132-120 in the National Basketball Association.

Wellsville Scores 12-0 Win Over Chester To Gain Crown

Following a scoreless first half, Wellsville scored touchdowns in the third and fourth quarters to defeat Chester, 12-0, and win the 1967 Little Football League championship, Thursday at Wellsville.

After a defensive battle in the first half, Wellsville drove 60 yards to score early in the third period. Young scored the first touchdown of the game from six yards out but a 32-yard run by Betts carried Wellsville deep into Chester territory.

After an 80-yard run by Carter for a touchdown was called back, Wellsville scored in the fourth period by going to the air on a 22-yard pass play from DeSarro to Byers.

On both occasions, Chester stopped Wellsville's conversion tries.

By winning Wellsville gained permanent possession of the Little League gold cup.

Wellsville showed an edge of 8-6 in first downs and gained 199 yards to Chester's 125.

Following the game first and second place trophies were presented.

Browns Given Extra 'Treat' With Thanksgiving Turkey

CLEVELAND (AP)— Members of the Cleveland Browns had an extra treat with their Thanksgiving turkey Thursday. They sat by their TV sets and watched the Dallas Cowboys clobber the St. Louis Cardinals 46-21.

That pushed the Cardinals :5-5-1) one full game behind the Browns, who lead the Century Division of the National Football League with a 6-4 record.

The Browns worked out at Don Fleming Fild Thursday, starting at 9 a.m. and continuing without a lunch brake to get them home early for Thanksgiving dinner. The emphasis was on pass defense in preparation for a visit from the Washington Redskins Sunday.

Washington's Sonny Jurgensen has been hitting his targets with precision lately, and is battling Johnny Unitas of Baltimore for first place among NFL passers.

The Redskins have been hampered by a series of injuries but appear to be in reasonably good physical condition.

Charley Taylor, who led the league as a receiver last year, missed several games with a pulled hamstring muscle. He was back in action Sunday when the Redskins upset the Cowboys, but reportedly was operating at less than peak efficiency. He is expected to be in better shape for the Cleveland game.

Several Injured In Incidents At Grid Title Game

CLEVELAND (AP)— Several persons were injured in scattered incidents linked to Cleveland's city championship high school football game Thursday, but Police Chief Michael J. Blackwell says he sees no need for calling off the annual contest.

Blackwell, who supervised a force of about 200 policemen on duty at the game, reported that his men did an "effective job."

"This was the barest minimum of trouble we've had at one of these games in a long time," said Blackwell. "But with the excitement of important games like this there's bound to be some."

A 47-year-old policeman, Michael Barrett, was the most seriously injured. Barrett suffered a broken leg when he tried to stop a man being pursued by other officers.

"He was going so fast he ran right over me," said Barrett. "Then all of a sudden I found I couldn't get up."

The man, described as in his mid-20s, escaped.

One of those injured was a 15-year-old West Side youth who reported he was beaten by 10 rowdies in a rest room and robbed of a wristwatch.

Police aided by civil defense volunteers moved in to break up several fights that broke out as the crowd was leaving Municipal Stadium.

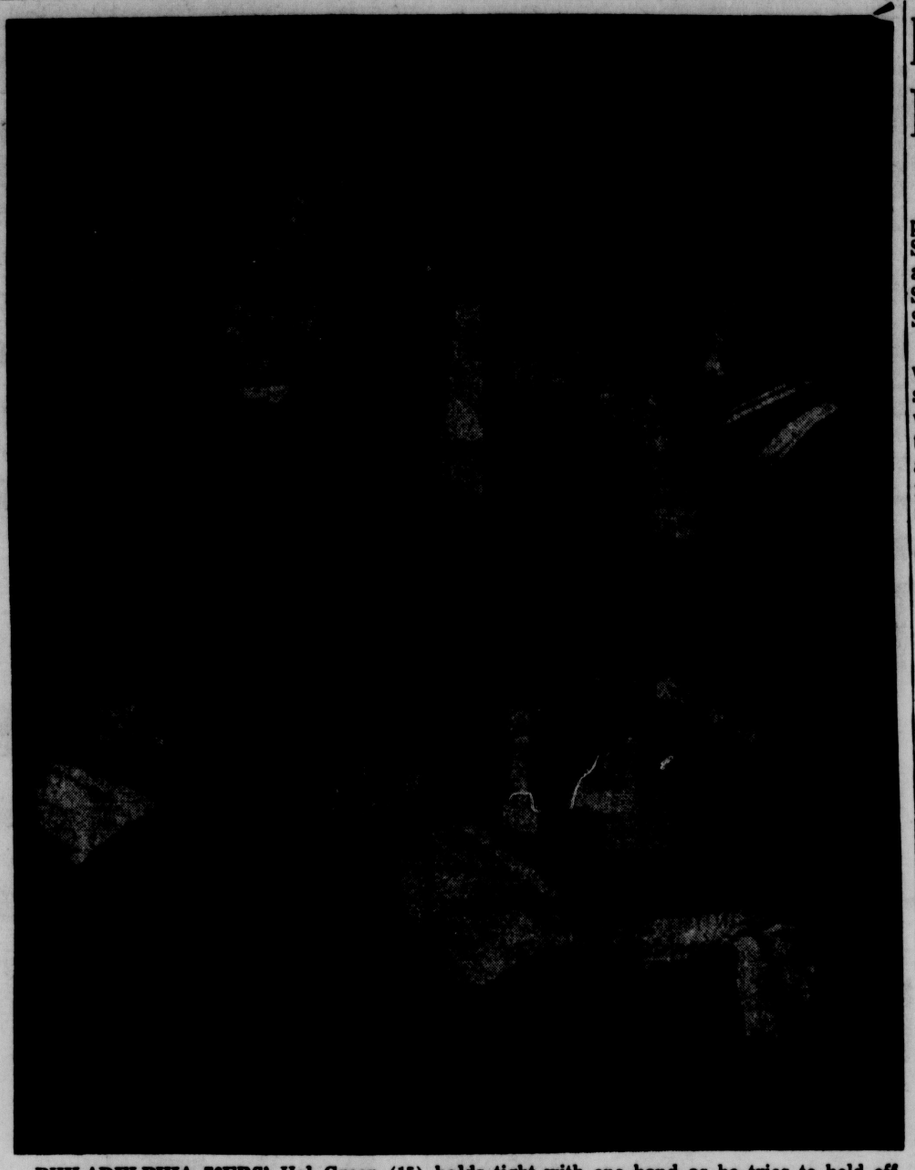
Police said windows were smashed at two downtown stores on Euclid Avenue after the game — at the Richman Bros. Co. and Stevens Shoe Store. Men's suits valued at $400 were taken from the Richman store.

Leetonia Takes Both Starts In Buckeye Preview

Leetonia, a Tri - County League team invited to play in the Buckeye Border Conference basketball preview was the only squad to win both games Wednesday night at Southern Local.

Leetonia defeated Wellsville, 14-10 and Southern Local, 2-9. All other schools split in the two games with the exception of Jefferson Union which dropped both starts.

Southern Local defeated Toronto, 14-13 and Toronto topped Beaver Local, 13-9. Beaver Local bounced back to down JU, 18-13 while Wellsville bombed JU, 16-6.



PHILADELPHIA 76ERS' Hal Greer (15) holds tight with one hand as he tries to hold off San Diego's Art Williams with the other during first period action in the NBA Thursday night. The 76ers won, 128-117. (UPI Telephoto)

Backstrom's In Star Role For Montreal

By The Associated Press

Speedy Ralph Backstrom has become the center of attraction for the Montreal Canadiens, who've suddenly caught fire in the National Hockey League.

With star centers Jean Beliveau and Henri Richard on the injured list, Backstrom, another veteran center, scored three goals and assisted on two others in leading the Canadiens to a 7-0 victory over the Chicago Black Hawks Thursday night. The setback was the Hawks' first in 10 games.

In the only other game, the Boston Bruins downed the New York Rangers 4-2.

The results lifted the Bruins into a first-place tie with Toronto in the circuit's East Division while the Canadiens took over fourth place from the Rangers. Detroit is third and Chicago sixth.

Backstrom, who scored one goal Wednesday night when Montreal beat St. Louis 3-1, registered twice in the opening period and once in the second session at Chicago. He now has seven goals for the season.

Bobby Rousseau with two goals and Claude Larose and Yvan Cournoyer with one apiece were the other Canadiens' scorers. Backstrom assisted on the Larose and Cournoyer tallies. The Hawks, who had won five and tied four of their previous nine games, had only 15 shots on net. Gump Worsley turned in the shutout.

Johnny Bucyk was the Bruins' star. He scored twice in the opening period at Boston after Larry Jeffrey's tally had given the Rangers an earlier lead.

After a scoreless second session, Tommy Williams and Phil Esposito tallied for Boston and Reg Fleming for New York in the third period. Gilles Villemure, who replaced Ed Giacomin as the Rangers' starting goalie, made 43 saves while Boston netminder turned back 21 shots. Giacomin had started each of New York's previous 17 games.

Boycott

record of 19.5 seconds in the 200 meters and the 220-yard dash, said earlier this month he would "give my right arm to win a gold medal in the Olympics." He said Thursday, however, that he would join a boycott.

"I am quite willing not only to give up participation in the games but also my life if necessary," Smith told the San Jose Mercury News, "if it means that it will open a door or channel by which the oppression and injustice suffered by my people in America can be alleviated."

The brief violence outside the church took place shortly before the meeting ended, when 50 followers of Ron Karenga, a militant California Black Power leader, clashed with the leftist group, one of whom was white, the rest Negro.

A man identified as Michael Lasky, white, a leader of the pro-Communist United Front, was cut severely on the face and William Thrash, 17, one of Lasky's group, was shot in the right wrist.

Rebels Place Two Stars On Inter-County

Crestview placed two men on the 14-man Inter - County League All - Star team.

Randy McBride, a 210 - pound senior, was named at halfback and Charles Lanzendorfer, a 185-pound senior, was named as defensive lineman. The squad included 11 offensive players and three defensive players.

On the second team, the Rebels placed senior Bob Unger, 170, at end; senior Charles Hamilton, 180 at guard and senior Doug McLaughlin, 155, at defensive back.

Mineral Ridge dominated the first team with six selections.

Buckeyes Eye 6-3 Mark In Battle With Michigan

By The Associated Press

Woody Hayes will start preparing for next football season Sunday, and the work will be a lot more pleasant if his Ohio State Buckeyes beat Michigan Saturday at Ann Arbor.

A victory over the Wolverines would give the Buckeyes a 6-3 season record and a four-game winning streak for next year's team to try to build on. It also would keep intact Hayes' record of never losing two straight games to Michigan.

Ohio State is 4-2 in the Big Ten, Michigan 3-3.

Coach Hayes' record in the Ohio - Michigan rivalry is 10-6. Last year's game was won by Michigan 17-3.

Saturday's game will be regionally televised.

The season ends for Ohio college teams Saturday. In the only other game involving an Ohio team, Bowling Green plays Los Angeles State at night in Los Angeles. The Falcons have a chance to finish 6-4 over-all and a perfect 4-0 outside of the Mid-American Conference.

Ohio State held its last full workout of the season Thursday, with the 10 seniors on the squad going through the traditional "senior tackle" ceremony —an assault on a tackling dummy that is meant to inspire the squad for the season's closing game.

Hayes treated his Buckeyes, who go into the Michigan game as five - point underdogs, to Thanksgiving dinner at a restaurant after the practice.

Michigan is 4-5 over-all for the year but also has a three-game winning streak. Junior quarterback Dennis Brown, who pushed senior Dick Vidmer out of a job, has been improving steadily. And running back Ron Johnson is second only to Purdue's Leroy Keyes among the Big Ten's rushers.

Both teams go into the game in good physical condition. Buckeye fullback Paul Huff, who sat out last week's game against Iowa with an injury, may not be ready.

Due Olympic Details

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Pedro Ramirez Vasquez, chairman of the Olympic Committee, left today on a three-week trip to tend to details of the 1968 Games here. He plans to visit Moscow, Paris, Athens, Munich, Madrid and New York.

Massillon High School, over the years it has been playing football, has outscored its opponents by over 10,000 points.

Muskies Bomb Pipers To Continue Hot Pace

By The Associated Press

The way the Minnesota Muskies are winning games in the American Basketball Association it seems as if they will soon replace the Indiana Pacers at the top of the Eastern Division.

The Muskies moved in a tie for the No. 1 spot with a 101-75 home court victory over the Pittsburgh Pipers Thursday night. It was the Muskies' 12th victory in their last 14 games and gave them a 13-5 record, the same as Indiana's.

The Anaheim Amigos scored a 107-95 road victory over the Oakland Oaks in the other scheduled ABA game. New Orleans had been slated to play at Kentucky, but the game was switched weeks ago to tonight.

Mel Daniels led Minnesota over Pittsburgh with 25 points as the Muskies broke open a close game with a 38-17 spree in the final period. Ira Harge and Connie Hawkins each got 15 for the Pipers.

Anaheim trailed Oakland at the half 58-54, but took command with a burst of 18 straight points in the third period. Warren Davis, 6-foot-7, paced the spree with five straight baskets. He finished with 32 points, 20 in the second half. Ron Franz led the Oaks with 24.

Seattle upset Boston 133-106, Philadelphia beat San Diego 128-117, Chicago humbled New York 106-96 and Los Angeles downed Detroit 132-120 in the National Basketball Association.

S. Diego State Captures 2nd Small College Title

By The Associated Press

The San Diego State Aztecs, winners of 25 consecutive games, finished in first place in the final Associated Press small-college football poll for the second straight year today.

In the concluding 1967 vote by a national panel of 17 sports writers and broadcasters, the Aztecs received 12 first-place votes and 157 points on a basis of 10 for a first-place vote, 9 for second, 8 for third, etc.

Wellsville Scores 12-0 Win Over Chester To Gain Crown

Following a scoreless first half, Wellsville scored touchdowns in the third and fourth quarters to defeat Chester, 12-0, and win the 1967 Little Football League championship, Thursday at Wellsville.

After a defensive battle in the first half, Wellsville drove 60 yards to score early in the third period. Young scored the first touchdown of the game from six yards out but a 32-yard run by Betts carried Wellsville deep into Chester territory.

After an 80-yard run by Carter for a touchdown was called back, Wellsville scored in the fourth period by going to the air on a 22-yard pass play from DeSarro to Byers.

On both occasions, Chester stopped Wellsville's conversion tries.

By winning Wellsville gained permanent possession of the Little League gold cup.

Wellsville showed an edge of 8-6 in first downs and gained 199 yards to Chester's 125.

Following the game first and second place trophies were presented.

Browns Given Extra 'Treat' With Thanksgiving Turkey

CLEVELAND (AP)— Members of the Cleveland Browns had an extra treat with their Thanksgiving turkey Thursday. They sat by their TV sets and watched the Dallas Cowboys clobber the St. Louis Cardinals 46-21.

That pushed the Cardinals :5-5-1) one full game behind the Browns, who lead the Century Division of the National Football League with a 6-4 record.

The Browns worked out at Don Fleming Fild Thursday, starting at 9 a.m. and continuing without a lunch brake to get them home early for Thanksgiving dinner. The emphasis was on pass defense in preparation for a visit from the Washington Redskins Sunday.

Washington's Sonny Jurgensen has been hitting his targets with precision lately, and is battling Johnny Unitas of Baltimore for first place among NFL passers.

The Redskins have been hampered by a series of injuries but appear to be in reasonably good physical condition.

Charley Taylor, who led the league as a receiver last year, missed several games with a pulled hamstring muscle. He was back in action Sunday when the Redskins upset the Cowboys, but reportedly was operating at less than peak efficiency. He is expected to be in better shape for the Cleveland game.

Several Injured In Incidents At Grid Title Game

CLEVELAND (AP)— Several persons were injured in scattered incidents linked to Cleveland's city championship high school football game Thursday, but Police Chief Michael J. Blackwell says he sees no need for calling off the annual contest.

Blackwell, who supervised a force of about 200 policemen on duty at the game, reported that his men did an "effective job."

"This was the barest minimum of trouble we've had at one of these games in a long time," said Blackwell. "But with the excitement of important games like this there's bound to be some."

A 47-year-old policeman, Michael Barrett, was the most seriously injured. Barrett suffered a broken leg when he tried to stop a man being pursued by other officers.

"He was going so fast he ran right over me," said Barrett. "Then all of a sudden I found I couldn't get up."

The man, described as in his mid-20s, escaped.

One of those injured was a 15-year-old West Side youth who reported he was beaten by 10 rowdies in a rest room and robbed of a wristwatch.

Police aided by civil defense volunteers moved in to break up several fights that broke out as the crowd was leaving Municipal Stadium.

Police said windows were smashed at two downtown stores on Euclid Avenue after the game — at the Richman Bros. Co. and Stevens Shoe Store. Men's suits valued at $400 were taken from the Richman store.

Leetonia Takes Both Starts In Buckeye Preview

Leetonia, a Tri-County League team invited to play in the Buckeye Border Conference basketball preview was the only squad to win both games Wednesday night at Southern Local.

Leetonia defeated Wellsville, 14-10 and Southern Local, 2-9. All other schools split in the two games with the exception of Jefferson Union which dropped both starts.

Southern Local defeated Toronto, 14-13 and Toronto topped Beaver Local, 13-9. Beaver Local bounced back to down JU, 18-13 while Wellsville bombed JU, 16-6.

PHILADELPHIA 76ERS' Hal Greer (15) holds tight with one hand as he tries to hold off San Diego's Art Williams with the other during first period action in the NBA Thursday night. The 76ers won, 128-117. (UPI Telephoto)

Rebels Place Two Stars On Inter-County

Crestview placed two men on the 14-man Inter-County League All-Star team.

Randy McBride, a 210-pound senior, was named at halfback and Charles Lanzendorfer, a 185-pound senior, was named as defensive lineman. The squad included 11 offensive players and three defensive players.

On the second team, the Rebels placed senior Bob Unger, 170, at end; senior Charles Hamilton, 180 at guard and senior Doug McLaughlin, 155, at defensive back.

Mineral Ridge dominated the first team with six selections.

Backstrom's In Star Role For Montreal

By The Associated Press

Speedy Ralph Backstrom has become the center of attraction for the Montreal Canadiens, who've suddenly caught fire in the National Hockey League.

With star centers Jean Beliveau and Henri Richard on the injured list, Backstrom, another veteran center, scored three goals and assisted on two others in leading the Canadiens to a 7-0 victory over the Chicago Black Hawks Thursday night. The setback was the Hawks' first in 10 games.

In the only other game, the Boston Bruins downed the New York Rangers 4-2.

The results lifted the Bruins into a first-place tie with Toronto in the circuit's East Division while the Canadiens took over fourth place from the Rangers. Detroit is third and Chicago sixth.

Backstrom, who scored one goal Wednesday night when Montreal beat St. Louis 3-1, registered twice in the opening period and once in the second session at Chicago. He now has seven goals for the season.

Bobby Rousseau with two goals and Claude Larose and Yvan Cournoyer with one apiece were the other Canadiens' scorers. Backstrom assisted on the Larose and Cournoyer tallies. The Hawks, who had won five and tied four of their previous nine games, had only 15 shots on net. Gump Worsley turned in the shutout.

Johnny Bucyk was the Bruins' star. He scored twice in the opening period at Boston after Larry Jeffrey's tally had given the Rangers an earlier lead.

After a scoreless second session, Tommy Williams and Phil Esposito tallied for Boston and Reg Fleming for New York in the third period. Gilles Villemure, who replaced Ed Giacomin as the Rangers' starting goalie, made 43 saves while Boston netminder turned back 21 shots. Giacomin had started each of New York's previous 17 games.

Boycott

record of 19.5 seconds in the 200 meters and the 220-yard dash, said earlier this month he would "give my right arm to win a gold medal in the Olympics." He said Thursday, however, that he would join a boycott.

"I am quite willing not only to give up participation in the games but also my life if necessary," Smith told the San Jose Mercury News, "if it means that it will open a door or channel by which the oppression and injustice suffered by my people in America can be alleviated."

The brief violence outside the church took place shortly before the meeting ended, when 50 followers of Ron Karenga, a militant California Black Power leader, clashed with the leftist group, one of whom was white, the rest Negro.

A man identified as Michael Lasky, white, a leader of the pro-Communist United Front, was cut severely on the face and William Thrash, 17, one of Lasky's group, was shot in the right wrist.

Buckeyes Eye 6-3 Mark In Battle With Michigan

By The Associated Press

Woody Hayes will start preparing for next football season Sunday, and the work will be a lot more pleasant if his Ohio State Buckeyes beat Michigan Saturday at Ann Arbor.

A victory over the Wolverines would give the Buckeyes a 6-3 season record and a four-game winning streak for next year's team to try to build on. It also would keep intact Hayes' record of never losing two straight games to Michigan.

Ohio State is 4-2 in the Big Ten, Michigan 3-3.

Coach Hayes' record in the Ohio - Michigan rivalry is 10-6. Last year's game was won by Michigan 17-3.

Saturday's game will be regionally televised.

The season ends for Ohio college teams Saturday. In the only other game involving an Ohio team, Bowling Green plays Los Angeles State at night in Los Angeles. The Falcons have a chance to finish 6-4 over-all and a perfect 4-0 outside of the Mid-American Conference.

Ohio State held its last full workout of the season Thursday, with the 10 seniors on the squad going through the traditional "senior tackle" ceremony —an assault on a tackling dummy that is meant to inspire the squad for the season's closing game.

Hayes treated his Buckeyes, who go into the Michigan game as five - point underdogs, to Thanksgiving dinner at a restaurant after the practice.

Michigan is 4-5 over-all for the year but also has a three-game winning streak. Junior quarterback Dennis Brown, who pushed senior Dick Vidmer out of a job, has been improving steadily. And running back Ron Johnson is second only to Purdue's Leroy Keyes among the Big Ten's rushers.

Both teams go into the game in good physical condition. Buckeye fullback Paul Huff, who sat out last week's game against Iowa with an injury, may not be ready.

5 Youths Due Hearings For Theft, Burglary

Hearings have been scheduled before county juvenile authorities for five boys arrested by East Liverpool police in a holiday burglary and theft-breaking and entering of an E. 2nd St. auto body shop and the thievery of electric light bulbs from a used car lot in East End.

Three boys 16 and 17 were taken into custody after officers surrounded Dick Smith's Auto Body Shop on E. 2nd St. near Broadway Thursday at 12:07 a. m. when a nearby resident reported a burglary in progress. They are due hearings before Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin in Lisbon Dec. 12.

PATROLMEN Leonard Richard, Jack Strobel, James Buckley, Charles Coen and William Devon and Lt. Robert B. Pyle surrounded the one - story concrete block structure after receiving the report of an apparent entry.

Strobel arrested a 16-year-old, an Elm St. resident as he emerged from the shop with an armload of tools, officers said. The other two, a 17-year-old resident of E. 6th St. and 16-year-old Green Ln. boy, surrendered themselves at headquarters a short time later. Officers said the building was entered by breaking a lock on a door on the west side.

Smith told officers the stolen articles included six ratchet wrenches, 24 socket wrenches, 15 box - end wrenches, 12 end wrenches, 10 to 15 reglar screwdrivers and 10 to 15 more Phillips - type screwdrivers, a breaker bar, a hacksaw and other items.

PATROLMAN Karl W. Samples pursued and arrested the other two boys at 6:45 p. m. Wednesday after observing them on the used car lot of Arb Motor Sales on Pennsylvania Ave. They are due for an appearance before a juvenile officer Saturday at 11 a. m.

The officer reported he saw the boys on the auto lot while on routine patrol. When they fled, he gave chase and took them into custody on Etruria St. at the rear of East Junior High School. The boys admitted taking light bulbs from strings on the used car lot, he said. Several bulbs were missing and two were found on the ground, broken, the officer said.

THE INCIDENTS were among a series of petty theft and vandalism cases probed by police over the holiday.

Buckley discovered a theft at 2:22 this morning at the laundromat on W. 7th St. at Dresden Ave., operated by Homer Hoffman. Buckley, making a check while on routine patrol, said he found someone had stolen a pay telephone and forced open a soft drink machine, taking about 20 cents.

Stroble discovered an attempted breaking and entering at 3:30 a. m. Thursday at the Esquire Bar on Dresden Ave., owned by Mrs. Norma Cope of Negley. While on patrol, he found a would - be intruder had broken three 5-x-10-inch windows at the rear of the tavern and also had made an unsuccessful attempt to force open a padlock. A file was found lodged in the padlock, he said.

Mrs. Harriet J. Stull of 466 1st Ave. told police two tires and wheels were stolen from her 1961 model car Wednesday night while she was attending Thanksgiving services at the Boyce Methodist Church. The car was parked on a lot alongside the church, she said.

William Cline of 266 Moore St. told officers yesterday morning a vandal broke a window at his home sometime Wednesday night or Wednesday morning. James Willey of 2003 Pennsylvania Ave. Ext. reported a vandal broke the radio antenna on his car while it parked at his home Wednesday night and early Thursday.

Paul Zehnder of 1323 Fairmont St. reported Thursday morning a pair of binoculars and a five - cell flashlight were stolen from his auto while it was parked at his home between 10 p. m. Wednesday and 5:30 a. m. Thursday.

In 2 Holiday Incidents

5 Youths Due Hearings For Theft, Burglary

Hearings have been scheduled before county juvenile authorities for five boys arrested by East Liverpool police in a holiday burglary and theft-breaking and entering of an E. 2nd St. auto body shop and the thievery of electric light bulbs from a used car lot in East End.

Three boys 16 and 17 were taken into custody after officers surrounded Dick Smith's Auto Body Shop on E. 2nd St. near Broadway Thursday at 12:07 a. m. when a nearby resident reported a burglary in progress. They are due hearings before Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin in Lisbon Dec. 12.

PATROLMEN Leonard Richard, Jack Strobel, James Buckley, Charles Coen and William Devon and Lt. Robert B. Pyle surrounded the one - story concrete block structure after receiving the report of an apparent entry.

Strobel arrested a 16-year-old, an Elm St. resident as he emerged from the shop with an armload of tools, officers said. The other two, a 17-year-old resident of E. 6th St. and 16-year-old Green Ln. boy, surrendered themselves at headquarters a short time later. Officers said the building was entered by breaking a lock on a door on the west side.

Smith told officers the stolen articles included six ratchet wrenches, 24 socket wrenches, 15 box - end wrenches, 12 end wrenches, 10 to 15 regular screwdrivers and 10 to 15 more Phillips - type screwdrivers, a breaker bar, a hacksaw and other items.

PATROLMAN Karl W. Samples pursued and arrested the other two boys at 6:45 p. m. Wednesday after observing them on the used car lot of Arb Motor Sales on Pennsylvania Ave. They are due for an appearance before a juvenile officer Saturday at 11 a. m.

The officer reported he saw the boys on the auto lot while on routine patrol. When they fled, he gave chase and took them into custody on Etruria St. at the rear of East Junior High School. The boys admitted taking light bulbs from strings on the used car lot, he said. Several bulbs were missing and two were found on the ground, broken, the officer said.

THE INCIDENTS were among a series of petty theft and vandalism cases probed by police over the holiday.

Buckley discovered a theft at 2:22 this morning at the laundromat on W. 7th St. at Dresden Ave., operated by Homer Hoffman. Buckley, making a check while on routine patrol, said he found someone had stolen a pay telephone and forced open a soft drink machine, taking about 20 cents.

Stroble discovered an attempted breaking and entering at 3:30 a. m. Thursday at the Esquire Bar on Dresden Ave., owned by Mrs. Norma Cope of Negley. While on patrol, he found a would - be intruder had broken three 5-x-10-inch windows at the rear of the tavern and also had made an unsuccessful attempt to force open a padlock. A file was found lodged in the padlock, he said.

Mrs. Harriet J. Stull of 466 1st Ave. told police two tires and wheels were stolen from her 1961 model car Wednesday night while she was attending Thanksgiving services at the Boyce Methodist Church. The car was parked on a lot alongside the church, she said.

William Cline of 266 Moore St. told officers yesterday morning a vandal broke a window at his home sometime Wednesday night or Wednesday morning. James Willey of 2003 Pennsylvania Ave. Ext. reported a vandal broke the radio antenna on his car while it parked at his home Wednesday night and early Thursday.

Paul Zehnder of 1323 Fairmont St. reported Thursday morning a pair of binoculars and a five - cell flashlight were stolen from his auto while it was parked at his home between 10 p. m. Wednesday and 5:30 a. m. Thursday.

Rules of the charter granted the Wellsville Jaycees by Ohio Junior Miss Pageant, Inc., require all girls to be members of the senior class.

—:—

THIS YEAR'S pageant will be the largest ever staged in terms of the number of entrants, Ralph Fusco, general chairman,, points out.

Area merchants and businessmen are sponsoring the girls.

The girls and their parents will attend the annual Junior Miss banquet Saturday night at 6:30 at the Inn Town Motel here.

Saturday night and Sunday afternoon the girls will participate in rehearsals prior to the public pageant.

This year's choreographer is Vicki Broadbent.

All girls will be boarded at area homes during their three-day stay.

—:—

"THE MOST distinguished judging panel we've ever had will be on hand for the pageant," Fusco said.

Among them are Ohio's Junior Miss of 1965, Miss Jane Pilotti of Mt. Randolph of Monroe Heights, and Pam Stalder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Stalder of Frischkorn Heights, Wellsville.

East Palestine has produced two winners in the pageant in as many years — the reigning Kathy Strawn and the 1966 winner, Judy Zundel.

Rules of the charter granted the Wellsville Jaycees by Ohio Junior Miss Pageant, Inc., require all girls to be members of the senior class.

—:—

THIS YEAR'S pageant will be the largest ever staged in terms of the number of entrants, Ralph Fusco, general chairman,, points out.

Area merchants and businessmen are sponsoring the girls.

The girls and their parents will attend the annual Junior Miss banquet Saturday night at 6:30 at the Inn Town Motel here.

Saturday night and Sunday afternoon the girls will participate in rehearsals prior to the public pageant.

This year's choreographer is Vicki Broadbent.

R. Thomas Futhey of the East Liverpool Review news staff and a Jaycee member, will be master of ceremonies. He will be assisted by Mrs. Kathy Emmerling of Akron, an employe of radio station WCUE there.

William Telzrow, Wellsville Jaycees president, said Vincent Laneve of the East Liverpool Jaycees will be judges' chairman and Jerry Russell, former East Junior High School principal, will be scholastic judge.

All girls will be boarded at area homes during their three-day stay.

"THE MOST distinguished judging panel we've ever had will be on hand for the pageant," Fusco said.

Among them are Ohio's Junior Miss of 1965, Miss Jane Pilotti of Mt. Vernon; James Bee of Zanesville, president of the Ohio Jaycees; Glenn Adams of Lisbon, president of the Jaycee organization there and a state chairman; Ben Kaster of Canton, national Jaycee director of Region 8, and Mike Maistros of Martins Ferry, national director from Region 7.

Ohio's 1967 Junior Miss, Rebecca Reed of Dayton, also will appear during the pageant, along with Jerry Ulmer of Xenia, vice president of Ohio Junior Miss, Inc.

Also on hand will be Miss Polly Lease of Salem, Miss Columbiana County 1967. She represented the county in the Miss Ohio Pageant at Cedar Point.

The state Junior Miss pageant will be held at Xenia in February. Ohio's winner will advance to the national pageant in Mobile, Ala.

At Sunday's event, James Lang, an East Liverpool Jaycee, will be guest soloist.

Advance tickets may be purchased from Jaycee members. Tickets also will be sold at the door.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

DEAR HELOISE: Since hard water often clogs the holes in a steam iron, did you know that you could open them periodically by using a cotton swab from the medicine chest?

You can also dip a cotton swab in phosphorescent paint and outline light-switch plates in dark hallways, the bathroom or baby's room so they can be spotted instantly in an emergency, even by a first-time babysitter.

SHIELA ROSSI.

Bless you, Shiela, from everyone who's ever lived in a hard water area. And how many times have we groped for a light switch, even in familiar surroundings?

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Did you know that the whole family usually takes its mood from mama?

So when you get up feeling down, grit your teeth and smile. Put on some lipstick and set an extra pretty table for breakfast.

You'd be surprised how those returned smiles will brighten everyone's day — including yours!

"SMILING".

DEAR HELOISE: When going to a baby shower for a second child (or any shower after the first!), I take a gift for the baby and attach a wrapped, inexpensive storybook or toy for "Big" brother or sister.

Then when mother takes home all the gifts for baby, the other children feel that they are in on the excitement, too.

MRS. PATRICK GIPSON.

Now that's what I call good psychology. The older child doesn't feel left out.

HRLOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: This is how I heat that leftover turkey!

Place the meat in aluminum foil, add a small amount of water, seal the foil all around and heat for about 20 minutes in a moderate oven.

The turkey will steam and come out moist and delicious again.

CLARA.

DEAR HELOISE: Children are usually impatient. They want every special day to hurry and get here. To help them wait, you might try this:

Use an old calendar with the special day marked with some bright, eye-catching sign. Let the children keep it in a special place and each night at bedtime they can cross off each day.

This is fun for them and saves having to tell them each day how long it will be. It also helps the children to learn how to use calendars.

BEVERLY BARRILLEAUX.

DEAR HELOISE: Recently my husband and I tried a mild vinegar and water rinse on our dog after giving her a bath. Her hair was soft and silky, and she smelled nice and clean, too.

After all, we use it on our own hair. Why not the pets, too?

GEORGIA CRANFILL.

DEAR HELOISE: When you have a house full of people for breakfast, it's sometimes difficult to serve them eggs all at the same time.

Did you know you can serve all of them "sunnyside up" eggs by using cupcake tins?

I preheat the tins in the oven with a dab of butter in each one. Break one or two eggs into each cup and bake at about 350 degrees for 15 minutes or so depending on how soft or hard you want them.

They come out looking neat and uniform and no one has to wait. Mom gets to sit down and eat with everyone.

RUTH DAVIS.

Thanks for writing, Ruth. Your hint arrived just in time since the holidays are coming soon and we'll all be having lots of company.

We love you!

Ivy League Grid Fans Get More From Bands

NEW YORK (AP) — At a recent football game, Columbia University's band, completing its half-time show, went into formation at the 50-yard line.

"Ladies and gentlemen," an announcer intoned over the public address system, "while various Republicans make their moves in the Presidential race, the Democratic candidate is far from being chosen.

"Though many believe that President Johnson will easily capture the nomination, the band would like to show its estimation of his backing in the Democratic Party."

Whereupon the 75 musicians ran off he field while playing: "So Long, It's Been Good to Know You."

That same afternoon, the band took lyrical jabs at Mrs. Louise Day Hicks, unsuccessful candidate for mayor of Boston; Shirley Temple Black, an equally unsuccessful candidate for Congress in California, and Gov. George Romney of Michigan.

Ivy League football fans get more than precision marching and baton-twirlers with pretty legs. At halftime; they get a message, usually political, topical and clever and frequently risque.

Columbian's band, which advertises itself as "The Cleverest Band in the World," is the pace-setter, and has been for about five years.

At the Dartmouth game two weeks ago, the Columbia band did a routine on birth control.

It dedicated one number to the Vatican—"I Got Rhythm" —and included formations of a pill and a calendar. Forming a shotgun, it launched into "Get Me To The Church on Time."

Routines and scripts are devised by the students, but are reviewed by the dean of students. This official hasn't yet imposed censorship.

Proud Clarion Favorite In $50,000 'Cap

By The Associated Press

Ken ucky Derby winner Proud Clarion, whose vaunted stretch kick fell short last week, comes back Saturday as the favorite to whip seven or eight rivals in the 1⅛-miles, $50,000-added Gallant Fox Handicap at Aqueduct Race Track.

The Darby Dan colt, winner of the Roamer Handicap before bowing to Mr. Right by five lengths in last Saturday's Queens County 'Cap, picks up topweight of 124 pounds in the Giant Fox and will have Braulio Baeza in the saddle.

Of interest will be the first U. S. appearance of Psyche, a 5-year-old mare owned by the Templeton Stable of Winston Guest. Jean Deforge, one of the leading riders in France, will be on hand to pilot the Argentine-bred mare. She'll carry 113 pounds, one more than her full sisters—Niarkos from the Hasty House Farm.

Politely the favorite, splashed through the sloppy going and won the $57,500 Firenze Handicap by six lengths over Green Glade at Aqueduct in Thursday's holiday feature.

Lifelike took the Alligator Stakes at Tropical Park by four lengths over Winter Street. Miracle Hill scored by three lengths in the Thanksgiving Handicap at the Fair Grounds.

Dancer's Image beat Martin's Jig by a nose at Laurel while Moslem Fox made it four in a row by taking the Thanksgiving Day Purse at Narragansett.

Sharp Curve surprised with a four-length victory over the favored Nevada Marga in the Thanksgiving Day Handicap at Bay Meadows.

Woman Seeks License As Race Jockey

LAUREL, Md. (AP) — The chairman of the Marvland Racing Commission accepted for consideration Wednesday a jockey license application from a woman member of the U.S. Olympic riding team.

Chairman D. Eldred Rinehart said the matter will be taken up with other commission members at their next regular meeting, to be held next month.

Kathy Kusner, who wants to retain her amateur standing and her Olympic eligibility, seeks to become the second woman licensed to ride in parimutuel races in this country.

The 27-year-old horsewoman applied with Laurel stewards Wednesday, citing the 1964 Civil Rights Act, which bars discrimination on the basis of sex.

Kentucky Derby winner Proud Clarion, whose vaunted stretch kick fell short last week, comes back Saturday as the favorite to whip seven or eight rivals in the 1⅛-miles, $50,000-added Gallant Fox Handicap at Aqueduct Race Track.

The Darby Dan colt, winner of the Roamer Handicap before bowing to Mr. Right by five lengths in last Saturday's Queens County 'Cap, picks up topweight of 124 pounds in the Giant Fox and will have Braulio Baeza in the saddle.

Of interest will be the first U. S. appearance of Psyche, a 5-year-old mare owned by the Templeton Stable of Winston Guest. Jean Deforge, one of the leading riders in France, will be on hand to pilot the Argentine-bred mare. She'll carry 113 pounds, one more than her full sisters—Niarkos from the Hasty House Farm.

Politely the favorite, splashed through the sloppy going and won the $57,500 Firenze Handicap by six lengths over Green Glade at Aqueduct in Thursday's holiday feature.

Lifelike took the Alligator Stakes at Tropical Park by four lengths over Winter Street. Miracle Hill scored by three lengths in the Thanksgiving Handicap at the Fair Grounds.

Dancer's Image beat Martin's Jig by a nose at Laurel while Moslem Fox made it four in a row by taking the Thanksgiving Day Purse at Narragansett.

Sharp Curve surprised with a four-length victory over the favored Nevada Marga in the Thanksgiving Day Handicap at Bay Meadows.

Woman Seeks License As Race Jockey

LAUREL, Md. (AP) — The chairman of the Marvland Racing Commission accepted for consideration Wednesday a jockey license application from a woman member of the U.S. Olympic riding team.

Chairman D. Eldred Rinehart said the matter will be taken up with other commission members at their next regular meeting, to be held next month.

Kathy Kusner, who wants to retain her amateur standing and her Olympic eligibility, seeks to become the second woman licensed to ride in parimutuel races in this country.

The 27-year-old horsewoman applied with Laurel stewards Wednesday, citing the 1964 Civil Rights Act, which bars discrimination on the basis of sex.

Eyes 400 Victories

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Jorge Velasquez, the nation's leading jockey, needs only 14 more victories to reach his goal of 400 for the year. He rode Alcinarr in the fourth race at Tropical Park Thursday for his 386th victory.

Harbold Repeats As MV Back In Ohio Conference

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—For the second year in a row, Muskingum's Rick Harbold has been named the most valuable back in the Ohio Conference. End Rod Miller of Wittenberg was named the most valuable lineman.

They received the Gregory Memorial Awards Thursday night. The awards are named in honor of the all-Ohio football player at Denison who died of cancer in 1957.

The selections were made by the conference football coaches.

Harbold, a senior from Bexley, is one of only five players to receive the award more than once in its 12-year history.

Harbold climaxed a brilliant career by running for 858 yards and scoring 11 touchdowns during Muskingum's 8-1 season. In his career, he rambled for 2,556 yards and scored 38 touchdowns.

Miller, a senior from Kettering, caught 143 passes in four years for 2,288 yards, to set two conference records. He caught 38 this season.

Bob Mathias Chosen AAU Track Head

NEW YORK (AP) — Congressman Bob Mathias, R-Calif., and the only two-time winner of the Olympic decathlon, was named chairman Wednesday of the National Track and Field Advisory Committee of the Amateur Athletic Union.

Davis A. Matlin, AAU president, making the announcement, said the purpose of the committee will be to make recommendations for the broadening of the sport.

"We hope to have 40 former athletes on the committee before we are finished," Matlin said.

In addition to Mathias, who won the Olympic decathlon in 1948 and 1952, members of the committee include Rafer Johnson, C.K. Yang, Dr. David Sime, Mike Scandurra, Dr. Stephen Seymour, Charles Jenkins, Glenn Davis, Michael Portanova, Don Laz and Ollan Cassel, all of whom have had prominent careers in track and field.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Friday, Nov. 24, the 328th day of 1967. There are 37 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1963, Jack Ruby shot and killed Lee Harvey Oswald in Dallas, Tex.

On this date:

In 1784, the 12th American president, Zachary Taylor, was born in Orange County, Va.

In 1869, the American Woman's Suffrage Association was formed in Cleveland, Ohio.

In 1929, the French statesman, Georges Clemenceau, died.

In 1944, U.S. Superforts raided Tokyo. The raid was the first against the Japanese capital by land-based planes.

In 1963, the body of President John F. Kennedy was moved from the White House to the Capitol to lie in State.

Ten years ago: King Mohammed V of Morocco was flying to Washington for the first visit to the United States by a Moroccan monarch.

Five years ago: It was reported that Communist China had offered to sign a nonagression pact with Pakistan, a defense partner of the Western powers.

One year ago: Arab Legion troops, demanding arms to fight Israel, opened fire on mobs in Jordan.

Junior Editors Quiz on CAMERAS

QUESTION: What are the main kinds of cameras—how do they work?

ANSWER: All cameras have lenses which focus light rays on a light-sensitive film. During the fraction of a second or so, after you press the button, the light is allowed to come through and images are imprinted on the film. After being rolleed, the film is taken from the camera. It retains a chemical memory of the images, which are developed with special chemicals, giving transparent negatives, from which the final positve prints are made. We illustrate three of the most popular camera types. Box cameras are bought by most beginners because they are quite inexpensive. But these cameras, although reasonably priced, are not toys; excellent pictures may be taken with them. The more expensive 35-millimeter cameras use moving picture type film and carry small rolls which give many pictures. Fine lenses and high speed shutters enable these cameras to capture such shots as the hummingbird in flight. The reflex type is popular because you can look into such a camera, see just what you are going to get and focus it with precision. This principle is also used in many 35-mm cameras.
